Recipient of Scholarship To Attend Adrian College

Virginia Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Hill, 2507 East Big Beaver road, received the Detroit Edison one-year scholarship to Adrian college.

Virginia graduated from Clawson high school in June of this year, maintaining a high scholastic record throughout high school. She was chosen a member of the National Honor Society.

Mrs. Malcolm Garvoek and Patricia White went with Virginia this past week to the college, looked over the campus and picked out Virginia's room in South Hall dormitory.

Attending the baptism of Laura Jean O'Connor, four week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. O'Connor of Utica, were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connor of Birmingham and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Connor and Mr. and Mrs. John Eisenchenk and daughter, Mrs. William Phillips of Mt. Clemens, dropped in to visit Howard Sanders, Sunday, while he was working at his new residence on Markton road. The Sanders family hope to be in their new home in two weeks.

Mrs. Dwight Harvey, 78 Evangeline, has returned from Mishawaka, Ind., where she spent a week with her sisters, Mrs. Carl Meyerschofer and Mrs. Robert Schirm.

Blue Star Mothers met for a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Walter Miller. Following lunch, the 11 members present served cancer pads.

ENGAGEMENT
 Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moss, 1441 Canfield, announce the engagement of their daughter, Josephine, to Ronald Hacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben A. Hacker, 1200 Hartwig. Josephine and Ronald both graduated from Troy high school. Ronald is in the class of 1955 and the bride-elect in June 1954. The wedding date is set for Sept. 18, in St. John's Lutheran church in Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Jones, 1925 Larchwood, have returned from a two week vacation with relatives in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Sanders and their son Harry of Temple City drive are vacationing through the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland McKay (Dehores Stutter), 2171 East Maple road, are the parents of a seven pound, nine ounce daughter, Loretta Ann, their second child, born in Holy Cross hospital, Detroit.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Nellie Stutter, 2171 East Maple. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKay, John M street, Clawson.

MEN IN SERVICE

Paul Ayres Weds Rebecca Roberts In Pennsylvania

Mrs. Julius Ayres of Birmingham flew to Sharon, Pa., to witness the wedding of her son, A. SC Paul Jr., to Rebecca Grace Roberts, daughter of Russell Roberts of Sharon and the late Mrs. Roberts. Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ayres of Emmons avenue.

The double ring wedding ceremony was read by the Rev. G. David White at 1:30 p.m., Aug. 9, in St. John's Episcopal church, Sharon. Samuel F. Badal Jr., played the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Edward Gossler, Jr., cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She was dressed in a navy suit. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

George W. Wood was best man. A luncheon was held following the wedding for the bridal party and immediate families. The bridal table was centered by an arrangement of sweetheart roses flanked by white tapers.

The couple took a ten-day wedding trip to Michigan. They will live in Sharon, where Paul is stationed with the Air Force.

Forest Lake Pool Dedication Sunday

Forest Lake Country Club's swimming pool will be dedicated Sunday afternoon, after being completely rebuilt under the direction of Fred C. Hansen of Birmingham and Alan R. Pfaff of Detroit.

The pool is situated between the clubhouse and the lake, and groundbreaking ceremonies also will be held Sunday for an adjacent spray pool for children.

A formal reception will begin at 8 p.m., followed by a water ballet of synchronized swimming, racing and stroke demonstrations. Among those participating are Kitty Kinn, Lois Gibbons, Tom McDonald and Roger Hood.

Dedication by club president Blaine E. Eynon of Birmingham will be followed by a buffet supper. Arrangements for the day were made by William M. Hutchins and Gordon P. Deneau of Birmingham.

GOOD LOOKING

3797 W. Maple

It certainly is, and something more. Because this lovely example of ranch home architecture faces to the south over the broad fairways of Oakland Hills Country Club's golf course. Such a view is hard to find in this beautiful countryside.

Lower Level: Deluxe recreation room (at ground level) with tiled floor and fireplace, plus another bedroom and bath.

Tacked down carpets and travese drapes included. Low taxes $287 per year. You can't beat this for looks, for fine interior accommodations, for location.

First floor: living room, dining room, library, modern kitchen, large porch, three big bedrooms and two lovely baths.

Five bedrooms, three baths. Charming colonial interior. Living room and basement recreation room fireplaces, screened porch, large kitchen. Near schools and transportation.

An exceptional family home for $28,500.

Three twin-size bedrooms and an exceptionally fine living room are highlights of this colonial. Kitchen with eating space in addition to the separate dining room. 22' screened porch adjoins the 2-car attached garage. Lavatory in the full basement. Many inclusions at just $19,500.
