

The Melvin Greens To Reside in Albion

Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Arthur Green are on their honeymoon at a cottage on Silver Lake near Traverse City. The couple will live at 1221 East Porter, Albion, after the wedding trip.

Mrs. Green is the former Lois Marie Shook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shook of Sturgis. Melvin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Green, 1321 Cedar drive. The Rev. Byron Hahn officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m., Aug. 15, in the First Methodist church, Sturgis.

The bride ascended the aisle in a gown of white nylon tulle with charmingly lace panels over taffeta. Her gown was fashioned with a fitted lace bodice and long pointed sleeves. Seed pearls and pastel sequins on lace flowers adorned the yoke.

A fingertip veil of nylon tulle was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and pastel sequins. The bride carried a white orchid on a white satin Bible.

MRS. Thomas Roach of Fort Wayne, Ind., sister of the bride, was honor attendant. Her dress was of turquoise nylon lace over turquoise taffeta. She wore a matching picture hat and gloves and carried a basket of harmonizing mums and asters.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard Kaserer and Mrs. Robert Sechler, both of Sturgis and Luella Short

Mr. and Mrs. John Ziegelbauer, son and daughter-in-law of the Paul Ziegelbauers of Franklin road, are making their home in Lyons, N. Y. John is associated with the Constable Packing company of Newark, N. Y.

Franklin's WNEFA Plans Activities For Coming Season

Board members of the Franklin branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association met with their president, Mrs. Carlton Rasmussen, at her home on Rossmore way, last Friday morning, to discuss activities for the coming year.

They viewed with favor a program for the coming year presented by Mrs. Harry Barr on behalf of her program committee, which has worked diligently through the summer while the club was inactive.

The evening meeting proposed for September was approved and husbands and guests of the members are invited to attend.

The Franklin branch goes into its second year with a membership of 37. Mrs. R. J. Bouse, membership chairman, will welcome new members and interested parties should call her on the Mayfair exchange.

Mrs. Rasmussen, Mrs. Barr and Mrs. Herbert Weissinger attended the Michigan division's garden party and luncheon on the campus of E. Lansing yesterday, an affair held annually in cooperation with the extension service of the Michigan State college.

Dr. H. I. R. Chapman conducted a walk-talk through the horticultural greenhouses and rose test garden. Dr. James Tyson showed the group the lawn grass experimental plots and a bus trip to the weed eradication experimental plots was directed by Dr. Buford Grigsby.

Also of interest to the ladies was the display of flower arrangements furnished by members and groups attending the affair.

of Montague.

Gowns patterned like the matron of honor's in canary yellow, shrimp and light orchid were worn by the bridesmaids.

Lehr Koe of Albion was best man. Ushers were James L. Green, Jr. and Tom Green of Birmingham, brothers of the bridegroom and Thomas Roach of Fort Wayne. David Paul Roach, nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer. He carried a white satin heart shaped pillow bordered with white lace.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shook selected an aqua nylon lace over aqua taffeta dress with white accessories. She had pink carnations. Mrs. Green chose an embroidered nylon chiffon dress of apple blossom pink with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

A RECEPTION was held in the Fellowship hall of the church following the wedding. The bride's table was centered with a four-tier cake decorated with wedding bells and pink roses.

A navy nylon crepe dress with white accessories and a white nylon crocheted stole were worn by the bride for her wedding trip.

About 200 guests attended the wedding. Out-of-town guests were from Detroit, Birmingham, Ohio; Fort Wayne, Elkhart and Howe, Ind.; Elmhurst, Ill. and Albion.

Guests attending the wedding from Birmingham were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Lau, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Green, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Hillman, Mrs. Edwin Minks, Mrs. Harry Sherwood, Mrs. Allen McGirr and Mrs. Philip Schlaack.

Organizing New LVW Unit In Franklin Village Area

All Franklin area members of the League of Women Voters and those interested in joining the league are invited to attend a meeting and tea to be held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, August 25 at the home of Mrs. Bernard Magruder, 32965 Franklin court.

At this time further plans will be made to form a Franklin area unit of the Birmingham league, from there on a tour of the east coast.

Other officers will be chosen at the meeting and details of the year's program discussed.

Mrs. John Ramsey, a member of the board of the Michigan league, will discuss the aims and activities of the organization. Mrs. Magruder, the hostess, is a board member of the Birmingham LVW and voters service chairman.

Franklin's new fire truck is expected to be delivered late this week. It will be put on public exhibition in due time, but interested parties in the area are invited to examine it in the interim.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

The public is invited to attend an ice cream social to be held on the Franklin village green from 2-5 p.m. on Sunday, August 29. The event is sponsored by the village circle of the Franklin Community Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bell and daughter Beverly are vacationing in the east. The Bells left by plane last Sunday to meet Beverly.

VACATIONERS RETURN

The George Wellington Smiths, son Mark and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith, are back home after several days at Hidden Valley, near Gaylord.

Mr. and Mrs. Volney Bolls and daughter Barbara have returned to their home on Reifern road from a two week vacation tour through Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana.

The Bollahs picked up Barbara at a camp on Indian Beach on Traverse Bay near Northport, where she had spent a month.

SURPRISE PARTY

Every boy and then grown-ups celebrate their birthdays with parties, emulating their young 'Zy. Last Monday night Giant Silver took his wife Della out to dinner to celebrate her birthday and then brought her back to a surprise birthday party arranged at the Len Meales, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams, of Franklin, and the Hugh McPhails of Birmingham.
