Two Members of Wing Lake Shores Farm and Garden Club Feted at Tea

Members of the Wing Lake Shores Farm and Garden club met at the Thurber road home of Mrs. William Warner, Aug. 20, for a farewell tea honoring Mrs. Arthur Howard, retiring president of the club.

Mrs. Warner placed her refreshments upon a white, cut-work linen cloth. Dishes of assorted cookies and cakes, crystal compotes containing nuts and nuts were arranged around a large crystal bowl of orange sherbert punch.

Gracing one side of the table was an antique silver basket filled with yellow baby button mums and daisies. Across the room was another floral arrangement of fragrant pink roses and purple petunias.

Mrs. Howard was fited with a black and gold, oval shaped compact. The club's vice president, Mrs. Robert Dunlap, who will be moving to Hinsdale, Ill., Sept. 1, received a colorful silk scarf.

Wing Lake Shores Farm and Garden Club regret the loss of these two members who have so willingly devoted their time and labor on so many of Wing Lake's community projects.

TEEN-AGERS ON TV

Wing Laker's tuning in on Bruce Mayer's TV program "Let's Get It First" recently enjoyed the unexpected thrill of watching two of Wing Lake's teen-agers, Jackie Irvine and Marilyn Carroll, win top honors in a lively Charleston contest.

NORTHERN TRIP

The William Coles and daughter, Susan and Paula, enjoyed a recent three day trip to the Upper Peninsula where they visited the Indian reservation at Cross Village and Michigan's beautiful Tahquamenon Falls.

Highlight of their trip was the day long excursion to the falls. Leaving early in the morning, the family boarded the townerville trolley to ride five and a half miles through a forest where they saw several deer. At the end of the line, they transferred to the Paul Bunyan ferry which carried them 25 miles down the Tahquamenon river to the falls.

A swimming party, followed by a pot luck dinner, was hosted by the Stanley Carters at their Crabtree road home last Saturday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis of Birmingham; Mr. and runa, Canada, to shop for bone china made quite a change from the usual routine trip to the north for Mrs. Frank Koels, Mrs. H. Fisk, Mrs. Frank Pfeiffer and Mrs. Bruce Harding of Wing Lake.

Driving their station wagon on to the self-propelled ferry at Algonac, the ladies crossed over to Walpole island where they toured the Canadian Indian reservation before taking another two car ferry, which was pulled across the water by steel cables on pulleys, to Wallaceburg, on the mainland of Canada.

After a session in the china shops, they travelled north for more shopping at Corona. Their last ferry trip was at Cartwright where the ladies had to turn down a white board signal so that the captain at the St. Clair Shores station would know that there were passengers waiting on the Canadian side.

By the time the tiny ferry was pushed across the Huron river by a tug, it was time for dinner at one of Michigan's well known eating places, the Cunningham, where the ladies had to turn down a white board signal so that the captain at the St. Clair Shores station would know that there were passengers waiting on the Canadian side.

Back home with nine pounds of speckled trout and some northern pike are the Francis Gadds and children, Skipper and Susan, after a week's vacation at Limberlost Lodge, near Thessalon, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham of Thurber road were the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliott Janney in Cleveland, Ohio, over the weekend of Aug. 13.

Table decorations were carried out in a Mickey Mouse theme with one exception—the funny clown topping the birthday cake.

Guests enjoying ice cream and cake were Sandy Sue Smith, Johnny Irvine, Stevie Mair, Nancy and Patsy Dunham, Linda Cassen and Joanie Fuller of Wing Lake; Marcia Cippit and Kathy Petherick of Berkeley.

The William Springers spent a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Braine and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crockett of Birmingham were delighted with the savory shish kebab dinner which their hosts, the John Roberts, cooked over an outdoor grill in their patio, Aug. 14.

Served on individual skewers, the Roberts' shish kebab was made of small pieces of tenderloin steak which had been marinated in wine sauce, onions, mushrooms, green pepper rings and tomato wedges.

Canadian Visit
A one day "fernyland trip off the beaten trail" to Algonac, Wallaceburg and week and a half in and around Marquette, Copper Harbor and Isle Royale helping their son, Bill, (an amateur lapidist) collect various kinds of rock and driftwood to add to his collection at their Franklin road home.

Shortly thereafter, the family drove to Lake Michigan where they visited a lapidary shop at Petoskey.

OFF ON THEIR OWN
Financing a five day trip to New York City with money they earned during summer vacation, 17 year-old Susan Cole and friend, Debbie Walsh, left last Sunday on their first independent venture.

Having packed their bags at the Park Sheraton hotel, the girls have been busy making the rounds of New York's famous restaurants, Coney Island, Rockefeller Center and the theatre to see "Kismet," "Tea and Sympathy" and "Ondine."

POSTMAN'S HOLIDAY
Friends are chuckling over the latest report on 21 year-old Johnny Graupner who retired to the north woods at Les Cheneaux islands, completely "water-logged" after spending a strenuous two months teaching 72 Wing Laker's to swim.

His parting words were, "No more instructing until I return in September." But it seems that some pretty young ladies, vacationing nearby, had other ideas. Now Johnny is teaching them life-saving and enjoying just another "postman's holiday."
