MRS. ROBERT DESMOND TRAYLOR

Rosemary Foote Wed In Colorado Springs

St. Stephens chapel of Grace Episcopal church in Colorado Springs, Colo., was the scene Saturday afternoon of a double ring ceremony uniting Rosemary Foote and Robert Desmond Traylor in marriage.

Rosemary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Foote of 1701 Pine street, Birmingham. Robert is the son of Mrs. J. Dewey Traylor of Colorado Springs and the late Mr. Traylor. The bride's gown was of ivory faille taffeta over a drop skirt of tulle net, fashioned with short sleeves and a scalloped V neck. The empire waistline of the skirt ended in a waist-length flare. A seed pearl coronet held in place her ivory illusion elbow length veil and she carried a cascade gardenia bouquet.

LOWELL CARTER of Colorado Springs was Rosemary's maid of honor, in a deep blue waltz length gown of crystollette. Her pale pink carnation headress matched her bridesmaid bouquet of pink carnations. Attending the groom as best man was Richard Larson, with Thomas Hearne as usher. Both are from Colorado Springs. Mrs. Foote chose a mauve lace afternoon dress with charcoal grey accessories for her daughter's wedding and the reception that followed at the Pine Valley Club. Mrs. Traylor was dressed in a grey lace afternoon frock with navy accessories. Both mothers had corsages of cymbidium orchids. For her honeymoon trip through Colorado, the new Mrs. Traylor donned a light blue three-piece wool suit with black and white accessories and a gardenia corsage. The couple will reside in Colorado Springs.
