

BUSINESS BRIEFS

TRAFFIC WASN'T exactly stopped last week but it was slowed down as Honey Stephens climbed the ladder and started to paint the new sign for the Arthur Murray Dance Studio. Miss Stephens, one of the studio's instructors, said redecorating was nearly completed on the former Eggleston store and that the studio would hold its formal opening shortly.

Seated in his F-50 jet aircraft is Lt. Col. Richard M. Thorburn, 719 Larchlea drive. Col. Thorburn is an Air Force reservist of the 439th Fighter Bomber wing at Selfridge air force base for his annual two week summer encampment. A veteran of World War II, he flew 25 missions in the South Pacific and was awarded the Air Medal. Vice president of the W. H. Anderson company in civilian life, he trains one week a month throughout the year and for two weeks each summer. A native of Massachusetts and a graduate of the Royal Military college in England, Col. Thorburn resides with his wife, Catherine and their two children, Carol and Ann.
