Swiss Organdy Accents Gown for Sat. Vows

A gown of rose blush nylon tulle was worn by Mary Jean Grigware for her marriage to Russel Parkins Swaney Saturday afternoon. The nuptial rites were read at 1 o'clock in Stephen's church, Grand Rapids, by the Rev. Monsignor James A. Bryant before 400 wedding guests.

Medallions of swiss embroidered organdy were applied on the fitted bodice and short sleeves. The empire waistline was cuffed with a band of tulle and the bouffant skirt of tulle ended in a chapel train.

A sculptured colonial capulet of blush matching the bodice of the dress held a chapel length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of shell pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy.

The new Mrs. Swaney is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clare L. Grigware of Grand Rapids. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Russel Alger Swaney of Redding road.

MATRON of honor was Mrs. Robert Kern Bunch of Houston, Texas. Bridesmaids were Mary Lynn Tuberty of Kalamazoo and Sandra Lou Swaney, sister of the groom.

The attendants were gowned in ballerina length frocks of crystal rose. Deep pleated skirts were attached to the fitted midriffs and the shoulders were covered with draped berthas. Their headresses were circlets of ivy and gladioli.

When the newlyweds return they will make their home at 837 North University avenue, Ann Arbor.

FOR HER daughter's wedding and reception at the Peninsula club, Mrs. Grigware wore a princess style ice blue crystallette gown with matching accessories. Her corsage was of ice blue orchids. Mrs. Swaney wore a mauve imported lace dress with matching accessories and a shell pink orchid.

To start their northern motor trip, Mary Jean had an Elizabeth blue sheer wool costume. The dress was worn with a matching waist length double breasted jacket and blue velvet accessories. Her corsage was of ivory gladioli.

They went up to Saalt Ste. Marie and crossed into Canada at that point arriving ultimately at Rochester, N.Y. where they left three year old Bruce with his paternal grandparents, while they went on to Maine, N. Y. and the wedding of Mrs. Johanson's sister.

Kathy Johanson was flower-girl for her aunt. The travelers returned home by way of Cleveland and just in time to receive the newlyweds who visited here for a few days before returning to New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fischer of Bitternut Hill drive have returned home from a trip through Canada. The Fischers visited Quebec and Montreal and some of the famous shrines of that part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dowley of North Adams road recently had as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Edward Florence of Niagara Falls, New York. Mrs. Florence is Mr. Powley's sister.

While the Florences were here they celebrated their wedding anniversary. The Dowleys' son, William with his wife and two children came from Oak Park to join in the festivities and turkey dinner honoring his aunt and uncle.

The guests enjoyed many sight-seeing trips while they were here. Mrs. Florence said they enjoyed most of all Northland and the Veterans' Memorial building with its waterfront.

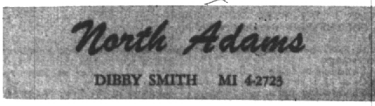

Mr. and Mrs. David Glefke of Hylane drive and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sarver of Beach road attended the two-day Hunter and Roadman show at Metamora last Saturday and Sunday.

Sarver's horse won the Working Hunter Class on Saturday. Ellen Sarver carried a blue ribbon in the Begonnie class. They stayed at Danis, Mass. Many places and sights were on the agenda of the travelers, but the sight that most impressed seven-year-old Lucinda was the "rainbow" on Niagara Falls at night. Every one was especially interested in the rock slide at Prospect Point. The Rudells returned to their home on Squirrel road last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith of Beach road entertained at cocktails before the steak roast and dance under the canvas at Orchard Lake Country club last Saturday. Their guests included Mr. and
