THREE YOUNG RIDERS, members of the Outland's Kangaroos Equestrienne team had their first taste of following the hounds Monday. Susie Sheridan on Lady Grey Dawn, Marcia Worley (captain) on Uncle Sam and Mary Jo Fisher on Mitey One (l to r) said they were thrilled with the ride, the wild gallop, the baying of the hounds and cries of the riders. They hope this will not be the last experience in this sport. While participating in the Metamora show over the weekend Sue took a second place in the Michigan Hunt Perpetual Challenge trophy meet and third in a hacking event. She took part in the junior horsemanship event but was outclassed by Skip Dowd and Lou Wilson.

March of Dimes Benefited By Neighborhood Circus

The March of Dimes was more than $11 richer last week after a group of Arlington neighborhood children staged a circus at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCartney.

The crowd of young fry and their parents were entertained with a roller skating exhibition, balancing acts, Indian dancing, boxing matches and baffling tricks, while merry clowns performed their antics.

Two cent admission was charged to the circus that was entirely planned and executed by the children. A white elephant sale was held in connection with the affair.

Participating in the event were Bobby, Margaret and Ann McCartney, Judy and Rex Beach, Ronce and Karen Pasatin, Tommy and Diane Joldersma, Peggy Newman, Bob Simpson and Theo Warren. The ages of the performers ranged from 4 to 11 years old.

entertained the Kroghs with an informal farewell party.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Matthews of Amherst road entertained at dinner last Saturday night. Their guests were Mrs. S. R. Touthaker, and Major and Mrs. Oren Burns and family of Manhattan, Kan. Major Burns is en route to a station in Europe where he will later be joined by his family.

Gail Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Grant of Birwood flew last week with her grandmother, Mrs. Paul Hillman for a week's vacationing and visiting with relatives in Sheboygan, Wis. Jack E. Gieck of Kirkshire road are her mother, Mrs. Ina Voelker, and sister, Gertrude Voelker, both of Olwein, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Dshberg of Buckingham have recently returned from vacationing in northern Michigan, Land-O-Lakes, and a stay at King's Gateway Inn, Wis.

Gary Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barber of Birwood celebrated his fifth birthday Saturday, August 21. Guests at his party were Carol and Katie Broderrick, Dobby, Nancy and Jeff W.
