Cheryl Mickelson Enters Antioch For 5-Year Term
 Cheryl Mickelson, a June graduate of Birmingham high school, will enter Antioch college on Aug. 30 to begin a five year program for a bachelor's degree under Antioch's study-plus-work plan.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Mickelson, 1433 Henrietta, Cheryl will spend all of her first year at the Yellow Springs, Ohio school in full time study. During her next four years, she will spend five months on-campus and six months gaining practical work experience on jobs regularly held by Antioch students in 31 states across the nation.

Cheryl will spend her first week at Antioch in a series of informal discussions and social activities designed to acquaint her with the college and her 300 classmates.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY:
 WILLIAM E. ROBERTS, Birmingham city commissioner; "I believe that the commission should take more of an active part in the city's Memorial Day observances. I further feel that the commission should appoint one of its members to act as the city's representative in whatever ceremonies are planned on this day." (The commission later appointed Commissioner Robert Navin as the city's official representative.)

Student Teacher Wins Scholarship
 Winner of the $500 American Association of University Women's scholarship is Alysanne Hazel Dove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dove of Wallace street.

Miss Dove was graduated from Birmingham high school in 1951, and for 12 months was employed in the Detroit Edison office before entering Michigan State college.

She will begin her junior year this fall, and after graduation, hopes to secure a teaching position in the Birmingham school system.

An accomplished musician, Miss Dove is frequently heard at the First Methodist church.

Teachers Here Seeking Rooms

Rooms are sought for 80 to 90 new teachers coming to Birmingham next month.

Birmingham's who are willing to open up their homes to house school teachers are urged to contact the Birmingham board of education office at Hills school.

The board housing committee is attempting to make available to all new teachers a list of homes where they may look for rooms. Dr. Dwight H. Ireland, school superintendent, stated this week.
