Representative Is Kiwanis Speaker

SOUTHFIELD.—Final plans for the Kiwanis sponsored appearance of the U. S. Marine band on Sept. 19 were made at last night's regular club meeting.

George Quaal, band representative, spoke at the meeting, relating salient facts about the history of the band and discussing the coming program.

Other future events of the club include the annual picnic on Aug. 29. The 1954 party will be at the John Grimes home, with the whole family invited.

Be Wise—Use Classified!

Board Authorizes Schools' Lawns

BLOOMFIELD HILLS.—The board of education at a Monday night special meeting authorized Wilcox and Laird landscaping architects to complete landscaping plans on the Wing Lake school and to prepare a long-range program at the new high school site to be completed over a period of years.

The board authorized work to proceed immediately on the fall seeding at Wing Lake. The group also authorized an over-all seeding started this fall over the play area of the new high school site. The rough grading work there has been completed.

New Management For Ritz Motel

The Ritz Motel, 1000 S. Woodard, Pontiac, is under new management. The new owner is Samuel Goldberg who contends he will cater to guests of area families who are here on visits.

The motel rooms are equipped with radio, television, air conditioning and telephones. Some even have small kitchenettes for people staying here any length of time. The motel carries an AAA recommendation.

Township Questions Village Services

SOUTHFIELD.—Supervisor William Roeser Tuesday night was instructed to meet with Franklin Village officials to discuss continuation of some township services to the new village.

The township board asked Roeser to determine whether Franklin still wanted Southfield to collect village rubbish, issue dog licenses and make building inspections.
