Troy Township Big Beaver Extension Group Elects Officers for Year

The Big Beaver Extension group met at the home of Mrs. Henry Esemann of Big Beaver road, for the last business meeting until September.

Officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. William Jenkins, chairman; Mrs. Grant Corney, vice chairman; Mrs. John Herald, secretary treasurer and Mrs. E. W. Herald, project leader.

A lesson on arrangement of floral center pieces was given by Mrs. E. W. Herald, with each member given material to arrange. Mrs. Herald then judged the members pieces and advised how they could be improved.

Among the 17 guests present were Mrs. Mildred Saye, Berkeley; Mrs. Charles Tomes, Clawson; Mrs. Albert Ursva, Royal Oak; Mrs. Harold Peterson, Mrs. William Jenkins, Mrs. Robert Dolman, Mrs. Harold Riegel and Mrs. Donald Anderlie, of Troy.

Lunch was served by the hostess and plans were made for a picnic to be held at Avon park. Each member is to bring her own picnic lunch.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS
Mrs. Paul Swan, president, entertained members of the Brooklands Women's National Farm and Garden club at her home, 504 East Big Beaver road, for a re-organization meeting.

The business included voting on the club's charter and regulations. Tea was served in the Swan garden by the hostess assisted by Mrs. William Jenkins. The group will meet once a week starting in the fall.

BAPTISM HELD
William Lee McGowan, three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. McGowan, 953 Rochester road, was baptized in the Big Beaver Methodist church by the Rev. Reginald S. Hocking, last Sunday.

The baby's sponsors were his uncle, Raymond J. Janes, Jr., and Carl Hubner, acting as proxy for the baby's aunt, Betty McGowan of Gulfport, Miss., who was unable to attend.

Following the baptismal service, a reception and buffet supper was held at the home of the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Janes, 1143 Larchwood, attended by relatives and close friends.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hubner and three daughters of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. William Hubner, Jr., and daughter of Royal Oak; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Estlow of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. James W. Green and son; and the baby's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley of Detroit.

Mrs. John Schenbals, one of the leaders of I-H projects in Troy township, reports that her sewing group has finished their first year project. The I-H group taking outdoor cooking, had an out-door picnic and cook-out in Oliver park.

David Yorkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Yorkey, was discharged from the Army after serving 11 months in Korea. He was in the service two years, taking his basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Mrs. Homer Ford of Muer road was hostess to members of the Gabbins Dozen club last week. Mrs. Wallace Rice, Mrs. George Osborne, Mrs. William Lecuire and Mrs. Eric Franzen were prize winners. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Franzen on Wattles road.

Mrs. Dewey Vetraino, 235 East Big Beaver road, was hostess to the Big Beaver Macabees for their July meeting. Following the pot-luck lunch, card games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Claude Leach, Mrs. Ella Schlaack and Mrs. Howard Shain.
