WHY DO YOU PREFER
BLUE BONNET?

Miss Amy Vanderbilt of Westport, Conn., is the socially prominent author of a highly popular book on etiquette.

"I find smooth-spreading BLUE BONNET Margarine, with its dependably fresh, sunny-sweet flavor, a joy for making party sandwiches and snacks. And it's high in nutrition, you know—furnishing both vitamins A and D. You are always correct, in my opinion, when you serve BLUE BONNET for Flavor, Nutrition and Economy!"

With all the aplomb of seasoned theatrical producers, 11-year-old Barbara Trombley (director), 7-year-old Roxxy Dirge (co-director) and 8-year-old Edward Dirge (recording and sound effects) put their cast through a grueling two-day rehearsal before mailing invitations to their playmates—"See our show, Friday. Roxxy's house. We hope you come."

Making their entrance from the dressing room in the garage, the cast performed in the breezeway of the Edward Dirge's Meadow Way home, delighting their audience with pantomimes of adult records.

Defying description were pantomimes of recording, "Life Of Capri" with Barbara Trombley playing the Barbara Trombley and Roxxy, the "lover," and Gretchen Twelmeier's portrayal of "Jealous Eyes."

Perfectly cast was Swallow, the

After spending a week with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Conners, at Kokomo, Ind., the Laverne Brydells returned home, July 26, with their 14-year-old son, Gary, who had been visiting the Conners since June 28.

Weekend of July 24, the Edward Tuttle and daughter, Pat, of Wing Lake drove to Battle Creek to visit with Mrs. Tuttle's mother, Mrs. David Frazier, and Tuttle's mother, Mrs. B. X. Tuttle.

ENTERTAINS AT TEA
 Mrs. Gordon Willis entertained friends at a tea given in her Worthington road home. Guests were Mrs. Francis Sehn, Mrs. Al Klingerley and Mrs. Charles Hiltz of Detroit; Mrs. Harold Dittich, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Allen Germain, Mrs. Walter Stocker, Mrs. J. Bohm, Mrs. William Frazier, Mrs. Louis Norman, Mrs. Bud Gordon and Mrs. John Doyle of Wing Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. John Irvine of Worthington road, at Devoles Gables recently. Following dinner, the couples went to Northville.

The Merle Sullivan recently entertained at a supper given in their Indianwood Trail home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bell, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Gil Gapp of Southfield.

BIRTHDAY DINNER
 The Edgar Debands of Indianwood Trail gave a small birthday dinner party for their seven-year-old son, Jeffrey, July 24. Guests were Jeffrey's God-parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Paul and children, Davis and Lois of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nelson, Lathrup Village and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fregue and children, Howard and Bonnie of Jackson, who were houseguests of the Debands over the weekend of July 24.

FAMILY PICNIC
 The annual family picnic of Mrs. Frank Ghesquierre's family was held at her Franklin road home. Greeting her father, Charles Jenwinie of Detroit, were her brother and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenwinie and their son, Bill, and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dulac and son, Kenny, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenwinie, Jr., and children, Karen and Chuckie, of St. Clair Shores.

CHILDREN'S PARTY
 Allowed to be present only "in case of emergency," Mrs. Philip Johnson of West Surrey remained discreetly in the background while eight-year-old Susie and 12-year-old Pat hosted an afternoon party for their friends, July 23.

In the preparation of their party, the girls left mother at home while they shopped for prizes with their own savings. For refreshments, Susie mixed a tasty grape punch and Patty baked two kinds of cookies—pressed peanut butter and oatmeal raisin.

Outdoor games of walking papers, zoning on a trip and button on a shoe were enjoyed by guests. Susie and Sally Allen, Pat and June Casson, and Mickey Carroll of Wing Lake; Maureen Sande and Patty Kramer and Eleanor Martin of Foxcroft.

Books, Music, Fishing
Librarian's Hobbies

"Hobbies? Oh, children's books, of which I have quite a collection, classical music and fishing. They seem to be the things I enjoy most when I'm not at work."

Kathleen Picket, a native of Kalumazoo and graduate of Western Michigan college, new head of the children's department at Baldwin public library, said her collection of children's books had been gathered on the basis of the stories, the art work and the author.

"I've been a bit selective," Miss Picket said, "not just collecting any old thing that could be called a book for children."

As to the classical music, she said she had a number of records and listening to them is one of her greatest pleasures.

The fishing, of course, is incidental. Certain legal restrictions enter into this, regulating their time according to seasons and "open dates."

July 16 to 26, the Elwood Engels and sons, Paul, Lloyd and Charles, were house guests of Mrs. Engle's mother, Mrs. Charles Inboden, at her summer cottage on Lake Huron, near Cassville.

At home on west Surrey after two weeks at Westminster camp on Higgins Lake are Bill Thom and his brother, Bob.

The Lawrence Martas of Oak Grove drive received a letter from their 21-year-old son, Bud, post-marked Paris, France. In the told of meeting a former classmate of Dartmouth college, Brook Brown of New Jersey, together, they helped the Parisians celebrate Bastille Day by joining the dancing in the streets.

Bud is making a hitchhiking tour of Europe before beginning his studies at the university of Edinburgh in Scotland, next fall.

His 13-year-old sister, Ellen, just enjoyed a 10 day visit at the summer cottage of the Stanley Jessons on Lake Charlevoix, near East Jordan, as the house guest of 14-year-old Susie Jesson.

are wonderful companions and a limitless source of information. A growing boy or girl, though, should live a full life, and that includes a certain amount of time spent at play."

WHEN THE Rangers' season ends, shortly before the opening of school, birds will be added to the trees, a special attraction. The readers will receive the trees as records of the summer's work.

Another standard activity at the library which falls in Miss Picket's charge, is the Tuesday morning story hours.

"We spend for short sessions in order to hold the interest of the younger children. There are about thirty in this group, as compared to not far above two hundred in the other."

The Tuesday sessions start at 10:30 a.m., for about half an hour, and will continue through August.

Miss Picket is now formulating plans for story hours and reading sessions to occupy children through the fall and winter.
