North, South, East and West Attract Vacationing Residents

It seems that everyone's coming or going these days including the Howard C. Silverthorn's who have just returned after two weeks in Silverthorn's "neck-o'-the-woods" up around Harrisville.

Making Alons beach their headquarters, they fanned out from there. Fishing was so good that it wasn't much fun, said Silverthorn—the perch were just jumping on his hook so he quit.

In his garden Silverthorn is experimenting with a new potato idea. He bought one hundred potato eyes, and put two in each hill. Last Saturday he dug a hill just to see how things were coming and he found potatoes all right—some the size of an average grapefruit.

Pat Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Sullivan of Hampton road, has really been having a vacation fling for herself the past three weeks. It all started Sunday at Higgins lake at the summer home of the A. Tellings, of Detroit. At that time, they stay there, she joined forces with the Orville Greens and left for another ten days of touring Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The Fred L. McKinnon's daughter Nancy and her cousin, Mary Ellen Brown, just returned from an extended vacation to points east, west and south. The first went to Montreal and the Province of Quebec and then down through Maine where they spent several days with McKinnon's sister, the James Canfields.

Heading down the coast, their next stop was New York City which stalled them for two days of sightseeing. On their way home they spent several days in Youngstown, Ohio with Mrs. McKinnon's sister, Mrs. John Sutherland.

Arriving in Birmingham they stopped just long enough to change clothes and they were off again—this time to take Mary Ellen home to her folks, the William F. Browns, of Chicago.

The warmth of the old family reunion was felt Sunday, July 25th at Round Lake near Highland. Gathered there were 40 members of the Clarke family, including the Gordon Nequists and their children, Bonnie, Susan and Doug, of Old Mill road. Bonnie confessed she hadn't eaten so much chicken or seen so much food since last year's reunion.

LONG VACATION ENDS

The Clifford Jacksons, on East-lady drive, are getting back into the routine of things after a month-long vacation trip through the west. Daughters Linda and Sharon really enjoyed their visits to Grandma and Grandpa Winterfield, in Albert Lea, Minn. and to their uncle's home in Iowa Falls, Iowa. There was a grand tour of the famous Black Hills, Yellowstone and Glacier National Park in Montana, which will be excellent "hanging time" material when school begins.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Skinner of Forest lane returned last week from a long weekend in Howland. They were among a group of 58 people who chartered a railroad car for the trip. It was loads of fun except there wasn't too much room for one's feet commented the Skinners.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McColl have been enjoying their grandchildren these past two weeks. Their daughter, Mrs. Bernard Cannon, and her little trio, David, 6 Patti, 3 and
