Many Events Planned for Bride-Elect

Several parties are creating a busy schedule for bride-elect Lynn Ann Tunncliffe, whose marriage to Richard Shalberg will take place Aug. 14, at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Her pre-nuptial whirl started July 14, when Mrs. Donald McIntyre and daughter Margaret were hostesses at a luncheon and bathroom shower for 12 at the Detroit Golf club.

A week later Mrs. William Manning and daughter Margaret assumed the hostess role entertaining at a dessert and lingerie shower for several of Ann's close friends and their mothers.

July 30 marked the luncheon and shower at Oakland Hills country club, when the bride's aunt, Mrs. Alexander A. Appleford was hostess.

A luncheon and table top shower Aug. 3, at the Detroit Boat club, had Mrs. Floyd Strath as hostess. Guests included Mrs. Nell Graham and daughter Barbara of Captiva Island, Fla., former residents of Birmingham who are here for the wedding.

Another out-of-town guest was Mrs. William Arnaud of Atlanta, Ga., who with Mrs. Strath was a sorority sister of Ann's mother during their University of Michigan days.

The Aug. 4 dessert and kitchen shower was given by Mrs. Hollis Halladay at her Riveroak home. Today, Miss Sally Collins is entertaining a group of 20 young women at a buffet supper at her home. Here for the shower and a houseguest of the bride-elect until after the wedding, is Miss Jane Dickenson of Beaver Falls, Pa.

FRIDAY'S engagement will be the "round the clock" shower which will have Mrs. Royce Shafter and daughter, Mrs. John Zinsor of Long Beach, Calif., as hostesses. This will be in the form of a tea at the Shafter home on Longfellow, with the guests including Ann's Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters from the University of Michigan.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther Roy Leader, Miss Tunncliffe's aunt and uncle, are entertaining the wedding party and their dates at a cocktail party and dinner dance on Aug. 7. The affair will be at the Detroit Athletic club.

At a separate table the hosts will entertain the parents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Max B. Tunncliffe and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shalberg.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mason will entertain at a cocktail party at their Fairway home on Aug. 8 for friends of the bridal couple.

ON AUG. 11, Misses Ann Mock and Jane Dickenson will be hostesses at the spinster dinner at the Mock home. That evening William Shalberg will host his brother's bachelor dinner.

The bridesmaids and a few friends will gather at the Tunncliffe home on Cranbrook road Aug. 12, with Mrs. Tunncliffe as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Shalberg will entertain for the rehearsal dinner the following evening at Devon tables.

Attendants named for the wedding are Miss Dickenson, Beaver Falls, Pa., maid of honor, Mrs. John Gould and Miss Miriam
