Christmas Activities Hold Spotlight Here

Walnut Lake Woman's Club members received a poetic invitation for their Christmas party through the mail and found that it was a true prediction of the gay evening. The hall was bright with special decorations and a beautiful, large tree, and there were gifts, prizes, and lots of singing. Club prizes were won by Mrs. Keith Sprigzel, who captured the top-plum of a twenty-five dollar gift certificate. Mrs. Thomas Soder Mrs. Mason Noble, Mrs. Richard Nelson, Mrs. Vincent Alsin, Mrs. Henry Hall, Mrs. George Osterbeck, Mrs. Arthur Schueler and Mrs. Mahlon Sutton.

Club members are praising the committee, headed by Mrs. Cass Browarney and including Mrs. James Sanborn, Jr., Mrs. Keith Sprigzel, Mrs. James Sweeney, Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Mrs. Ross Banker, Mrs. Julian Ofenstein, Mrs. John Nababedian and Mrs. Vernon Nickel for the successful planning and work behind their fun. Mrs. Emmet Delaney was in charge of the prizes, and Mrs. John Phelps led the singing.

COMMUNITY TREE
Tree-lighting ceremonies for the Walnut Lake Community Christmas tree, on the green near the fire hall, will be held on Sunday, Dec. 19, from 6:00 to 6:30 p.m. All residents of this area are welcome to bring their children to enjoy the festivities, to which Santa Claus has been invited. He has never failed to accept the invitation in the past, and has always arrived in time to hand out small favors to his admirers.

DISCUSSES BELLS
The Walnut Lake Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association held its monthly meeting Dec. 6 at the home of Mrs. Stewart Schulte, Walnut Lake road. Guest speaker was Mrs. J. Bennett, Pontiac, whose theme was "Bells at Home and Abroad." She was introduced by Mrs. E. J. Monteth.

Many beautiful and unusual bells, of all sizes and shapes were shown. The speaker covered the origin of the first bell, materials used, how tones are formed and different ways to play them. Swiss goat bells, cow, elephant, camel and sheep bells were included. They had come from Switzerland, Mexico, Belgium, Haiti, Paris, Peru, China, India and many other countries. Following the program, refreshments were served by Mrs. Schulte and Mrs. John Smith.

SCOUTS ACTIVITIES
Brownie Troup #12, second grade girls, and newly formed this year, held an investiture ceremony Dec. 9, in the presence of mothers and friends. Girls who made the Brownie promise and received their pins were Betty Allen, Lynn Chesterfield, Linda Bunn, Kris Hansen, Janine Fackler, Jean Hellenberg, Helen Bierla, Nora Koskinen, Dajna Layman, Becky Martin, Carolyn Marx, Linda Moakes, Lydia Murray, Marsha Optr, Pamela Pottelger, Candy Schueler, Joyce Smith, Sandy Stevenson, Lis Tross and Susan Turner. The Brownie afterward served cake and punch to their guests.

Girl Scout Troup 413 has been busy at recent meetings making Christmas angels for house decorations. However, last Monday, all work was suspended while the home decorations will be lighted for the first time. Invited are the Howard Goulds, the Frank Swets, the George Osterbecks, the John Phelps, the Robert Stevensons and the Keith Sprigzels.

JEAN CURRIE'S engagement to Charles R. Davies has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Currie, of Bloomfield Hills. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Reginald Davies of Birmingham. He and Miss Currie are both students at University of Michigan.

SURPRISE VISIT
The Victor Gask of 81 Chubbury road, had a pleasant surprise last week when he received word that old friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Young, from Ferndale, were in Detroit attending a convention of road contractors. Deanna and Gates are Fraternity brothers, and when the convention ended the old-timers were persuaded to spend the weekend at the Gask home while the foursome brought themselves up-to-date on family happenings.

BUSY CLUB SCOUTS
Club Scouts Pack 41 are busy this week as they attend their regular meetings. Many are working on projects for Christmas giving or decorations, and looking forward to Friday evening, when they will attend the special Christmas dinner at the Ford Rotunda. Saturday afternoon all are invited to the Christmas party given by the Walnut Lake Men's club. The party on Saturday will be held in the clubrooms at 2066 Walnut Lake road from 2 to 4 p.m. There will be music, sports, a magician and singing led by Don Harrison. Santa Claus is expected to arrive with favors for the boys before the party is over. Tickets have been placed in all clubs and to the children of club members. Boys must have their tickets with them for admission.
