—If you drive down Madison street around Dec. 21, you may sight a large bonfire and find yourself taken back to old fashioned memories of Christmas as you hear voices singing out familiar Christmas carols. One of the loveliest of Yuletide customs has been kept alive for the past five years by

Burning 'Yule Log', Neighborhood Custom

adults and youngsters alike. The original group including Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fleck, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Leach, Caroline Shields and Mr. and Mrs. James Zawodni, used to start practicing for this event way back in July. Now, as the neighborhood has grown, the need for practicing has ceased. All those who are interested join in along with their children so that now the original nine has grown to over 50.

The Christmas season too is a time for much merrymaking, neighborhood parties and families being near one another. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hughes of Buckingham entertained Saturday night with a cocktail party in their home preceding the annual Christmas dance of the Merry Makers Dance club at the Glen Oaks Country club. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Borgeson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Post, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. George Sauter.

SUNDAY NIGHT Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lafloun opened the holiday season with a buffet dinner in their home on Arlington.

Tuesday night a Christmas bridge party was held in the home of Mrs. Hazel Houck on Arlington. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert McCartney and Mrs. Clinton Newman. Guests included Mrs. William Oronston, Mrs. Betty Hale, Mrs. Judson Phelps, Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Maynard Bailey, Mrs. Russell Wiley, Mrs. Gordon Beach, Mrs. Howard Tuttle, Mrs. Charles Brande, Mrs. Richard Desjardins, Mrs. Joseph Westing, Mrs. Joseph Smith, Mrs. Andy Pasolin, Mrs. Arthur Neumann, Mrs. Al Johnson, Mrs. Herman Zeece, Mr. Al Lantz, Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, and Mrs. J. T. Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy W. Grest have sent out ten invitations to friends for a Christmas party Friday night in their Kirkshire road home.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Knapp of Briarcrest Knoll, Farmington, formerly of Kirkshire will be hosts for the annual Christmas, husband-and-wife party of her bridge club Saturday night. Guests, all contributing to the potluck dinner, will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gask, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dwyer, Mr. and Mrs. William Koeller, Mr. and Mrs. Percy W. Grest, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Don Borgeson, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Spiegel.

Mrs. Charles E. Grenier, Jr., of Buckingham will leave next week with daughter Michele to spend the Christmas holidays with her father James F. O'Brien at Long Island, N. Y. Grenier will join his family for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Foley with daughter Maureen will leave next week for Newburyport, Mass. to spend the holidays with their respective families. The Foleys, who are recent residents at 10890 Buckingham formerly made their home in Newburyport. Their daughter attends Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school, third grade. Foley is a sales representative for the Towle Sterling company.

DECEMBER BIRTHDAYS

ALONG with all the Christmas flurry, birthday parties are remaining extremely prominent, and there seems to be a number of children who have a double treat in December.

Celebrating her sixth birthday Saturday was Barbara A. Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Post of Verona Circle, Barona, who invited 12 of her friends for luncheon had a real Christmas party of her own. There were many surprises of delight when the girls found Santa Claus had found time to visit them in the Post home and even had little gifts for all. Guests were Patty Rau, Gail Gasvold, Betsy Authur, Mary Storer, Judy Steere, Kathleen Hungerford, Mary McClain, Marianne Murphy, Lynn Drake, Marjorie Schmitt, Kitty Bala, Gay Kelly, Janie Jo Sauter, Panny Martin, Linda Taggart, Cathy Hughes, Penny Cassell, Brook Cathy Zawodni.

PAMMY MARTIN, daughter of Buckingham, who just turned five, entertained with a luncheon party in her home Wednesday afternoon. A circus theme accented the occasion, climaxed with a cake covered with gaily colored covers. Pammy's guests were Cathy and Janie Hughes, Christine and Craig Mellinger, Carol and Susan Leonard, Nancy Yardley, Barbie and Chuckie Post, Robin Dewar and number until the girls have completed their tenderfoot work. At present, under the leadership of Mrs. George Fedack and Mrs. R. T. Siffermann, the girls are working on Christmas gifts and planning a party for Dec. 22. New members are Judy Burkhardt, Maureen Crowley, Judy Fedack, Bonnie Prestle, Sandy Genovesi, Mary Mallison, Jean McKenzie, Arlene Nick, Kathleen Rafferty, Judy Risak, Jennifer Roy, Kit Siffermann and Jean Sennfield.
