

Village Students Await Christmas

BLM. VILLAGE—First Grade. We made wreaths. We made frosty snowmen. We made a Christmas present for mother. We like to decorate our Christmas tree. We popped corn for the birds. We are going to the Ford Rotunda to see Santa. We made paper church windows. We saw milk bottles.

Second Grade. Every Wednesday we have a news report. We are going to be on our new stage. We are going to hear a story on the tape recorder.—Reported by Kathy Medchess.

Third Grade. We have three new pupils, Robert Huckaby, Jeffrey Coffin and Richard Adams. Frank Smith is our president this week.

BHS Providing Tutor Services

Members of the National honor society in Birmingham high schools are available for tutoring students who are falling behind in their studies or are having difficulties in mastering certain subjects.

Under the guidance of E. A. Hubbard and Mildred Swartz, faculty advisors, seven members of the society were selected as qualified for the tutoring.

Assistance in being given in French, Spanish, and Latin, mathematics, and the sciences with the bigger demand being in the subject of geometry. A fee of $1.00 per hour is charged.

Students who wish to avail themselves of the tutoring may make arrangements through the home-room teacher or by contacting Jim Gillen, organizer of the tutoring service.

Spanish Club Plans Christmas Carols

The BHS Spanish club is planning to go to Greenview convalescent home to sing Christmas carols for the old folks next Monday evening.

Next Saturday Margaret Seyferth and her committee are going out to the home to decorate and give a Christmas tree they bought with money from the treasury.

Each member is bringing some kind of fruit to make up a basket for the people to enjoy.

After singing at the home, the club will return to the high school to have a picnic under the direction of Miss Virginia Louis.

New Singing Society Organized at BHS

A group of nine freshman girls was selected out of 60 by Victor Ulrich to form a new vocal group called the Maple Sugarettes.

The new vocal organization will go with the choir to the Ford Rotunda tomorrow where they will make their first appearance in front of an audience singing "The Little Ones, Dear Lord, Are We" and "Shepherds, Awake!"

The Sugarettes members are Sharon Bell, Barbara Bell, Patay Boyle, Pat Fuller, Carol Van Hartaveldt, Joan Pierce, Dorothy Rogers, Sally Satterthwaite, and Nancy Savage.

Student Congressmen Visit Grosse Pointe

Visiting Grosse Pointe High school last Thursday were eight members of the Birmingham high school Student Congress, accompanied by two advisors, George Miller and Mrs. Carol Daeling.

The visit completed the exchange made by the two schools comparing different forms of bicameral government.

Representing Birmingham were Carole Goodhue, Bill Nechman, Ann Shenefield, Betty Quillian, Dick Morgan, Ed Peters, Doug Austin and Charles Frederickson.

Beverly Christmas Program Tonight

Beverly school will present its first Christmas program tonight at 8 o'clock in the school gymnasium. Participating in the program will be all fourth, fifth and sixth grade Beverly students, and all students who have been attending classes at Beverly.

Entitled "The Spirit of Christmas", the program will be directed by Marion Olds. Speaking parts will be taken by Tommy Hatfield, Bruce Brown and Tom Wood.

During the program several selections will be sung by the newly organized Beverly Glee club, and by a boys' quintet composed of David King, Bob Chert, Jerry Leuten, Jim Hubby and Danny Schutte. The Beverly orchestra, under the direction of Maxine James, will play Christmas carols.

Grades one, two and three of Beverly school will stage their Christmas program next Tuesday, Dec. 21, at 3:30 p.m. in the gymnasium.

BHS Debaters Lose To Hazel Parkers

Birmingham debaters lost four of the season's closest and most interesting debates to Hazel Park last Wednesday.

Loosing varsity teams consisted of Sue Spencer and Fred Shinnick affirmative, and Dick Silber and Joe Kroeger, negative.

Reserve teams were Bev Nach and Gary Reynolds, affirmative; and Marilyn Strailser and Beatrice Snyder, negative.

All four Hazel Park cases showed great similarity and consisted mainly of unusual definitions and interpretation of terms.
