Christmas Affairs Keep Everyone Busy

A dance club affiliated with Bonny Brook country club consists of around 150 couples who held their annual Christmas dinner dance on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts of Carey Lane entertained a small group for cocktails in their home followed by dinner at Gotsford Inn, before going to the dance.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson, Grosse Pointe; Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Crockett, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. E. Nurnie and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Grissom, Carey Lane

Brownie troop 164 has 21 girls and two leaders, Mrs. Mark Martin and Mrs. Jack Mustard. The group is handled in two sections with the leaders working out parallel programs.

They recently made 24 large permanent plastic ornaments for the Wing Lake school Christmas tree which they presented to Mrs. Forslund, principal.

NEW DAUGHTER

Dr. and Mrs. J. Hertzlae announce the birth of a daughter, Jennifer, Nov. 25 and balance the family at two boys and two girls.

HOLIDAY TRIM

Members and guests of the Foxcroft branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association met at the Birmingham Community House Dec. 6 for dessert and lunch.

Following this, Mrs. Clara Dishrow was introduced by program chairman Mrs. J. S. Black.

Mrs. Dishrow, associated with a Pontiac florist for 25 years, illustrated her talk by working with flowers and greens for the holiday table and mantel.

She showed how elaborate arrangements can be made with only a few materials.

Mrs. J. A. Hall and Mrs. J. N. Trombley were co-chairmen.

the dessert lunch, Mrs. F. N. Lawrence and Mrs. John A. McDonald presided at the holiday tea table.

GREENS WORKSHOP

The Foxcroft and Wing Lake branches of the W.N.F.G. will collaborate in a greens workshop Friday, Dec. 17 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Bloomfield township hall on Telegraph road, Mrs. William Yager of Grosse Pointe will be in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew B. Whittlesey and children, Diane 17, Sidney 12 and Matthew B. 4, four, arrived from Palos Verdes, Calif., Dec. 14. Whittlesey is the sister of Mrs. Jack Irvine, Worthington road. She was a former Birmingham resident and her many friends are planning to make her stay a round of entertainment.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

A luncheon at home and Birmingham movie party marked the 12th birthday of Julie Casson, Worthington road. Her guests were Pat Christianson, Caryll Hongwee, Barbara Trombley and Gail Knoebel of Wing Lake, Nancy Gould, Foxcroft and Nancy Erdman, Bloomfield township.

NEW RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. H. Boman and son Steve, seventeen months, have moved into their new home on Worthington. Richard, an engineer with Chevrolet. Both attended Michigan state college. Sue is a Kappa Gamma and Bill a Theta Chi.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters and children, Tommy four, Anthony three and Johnny one are settled in their new home at 6285 Thurber road.

They are members of Christ church having formerly lived in Birmingham. Peter is in sales with the Russell R. Peters Co. Mary attended Stephens college and Ohio State. Richard graduated from Michigan state and is a Lambda Chi Alpha.

JUNIOR COOKS

Until recently the members of Girl Scout troop 415 have been working on cooking badges. This consists of learning the seven basic foods, food elements and food preparation, both indoor and out. Lately they have set aside this pursuit to make surprise Christmas gifts for their mothers. There are 14 in the troop with Joyce Geidelman, 8 as their mascot, Mrs. Geidelman and Mrs. Deborah of Wing Lake Farms are their leaders.

HOLIDAY ENTERTAINING

Mrs. Joseph L. Johnson, Wing Lake road recently entertained the American Legion auxiliary, Roseland Park unit 20 at a membership dinner. Of the 80 guests, eight were new members. Entertained at the Wing Lake home of Mrs. Frank R. Koles, Dec. 8, were the members of a neighborhood bridge club, Charlotte Irvine, Katherine Fisk, Gertrude Jones, Ethel Peiffer, Ruth Fuller, Blanche Koles, Charlotte Wing Lake and Virginia Wandas of Bloomfield Hills. The dessert table was decorated in Christmas motif and Blanche Labadie poured. Katherine Fisk played the piano for Christmas songs. A gift exchange completed the fun.

LAST SATURDAY night, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Carroll, Thurber road, were suddenly aware of feet of laughter at their front door. Upon investigation they found that teenage Marilyn had arrived home from the Seaman club dance at the Community House, bearing as a gift a 19 pound turkey.

When you're 14 and suddenly faced with the possession of a big, big-out gobber it can arouse mixed emotions of futility, helplessness and frustration.

To rid herself of this predicament and still remain in command of the roasted drum-stick, Marilyn cleverly made a quick, slick sale to her parents. Top price, $6, used to buy new records.

This Sunday, the bird redeemed himself by roasting to a turn for the Carroll family and their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Sivier of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Goodall of Franklin Village.

GARDEN CLUB PARTY

The Wing Lake branch of the W.N.F.G. met at the home of Mrs. George Koehn, Cherokee road, Dec. 5. Following the business meeting, a Christmas program consisting of games, cards accompanied by Mrs. Koehn at the organ and a gift exchange was presented.

Yuletide decorations prevailed throughout the home. The tea table was "all dressed up" for Christmas and Mrs. William Warner, V. Pres. and Mrs. Jack Irvine, secretary, poured.

CARD GROUP MEETS

A group of ladies who regularly meet for afternoon business were entertained on Dec. 7 by Mrs. Ed. Carroll, Thurber road. They enjoyed a wonderful 12:00 lunch, then played cards for the afternoon. Following evening the luncheon, their P. O. Mails were served at the Carroll's and the party then met at the dining room at the Birmingham Community House.

Members of the card club are Lucetta Doby and Catherine Madell of Bloomfield Village, and Mildred Richards, Kitty Harding, Ethel Peiffer, Blanche Koles and Mildred Harbeck of Wing Lake.

SOCIAL EVENING

Sunday evening, Dec. 5, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Johnson, Wing Lake road, entertained Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Fitzgerald and Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Vora of Rosedale Park and Dr. W. A. Adams and R. F. Darlings of Wing Lake. The group enjoyed a social evening and buffet lunch.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Column of The Birmingham Eccentric.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL J. HEILER, Sr. announce the engagement of their granddaughter, Mary Jane Heiler, of Dakota circle, to Harold L. Bricker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bricker, of Watters road.

Rotary Annas Prepare Gifts For Children

Gifts in gay Yale wrappings, each one for a child at the Oakland county home for crippled children, were carried by Rotary Annas to their annual Christmas party on Dec. 13.

Those attending the party at Mrs. Webster Scheffle's home, 176 1/2 Union, each arrived with an ornament to help decorate the children's Christmas tree.

Chairman for the Rotary Annas party is Mrs. Clarence Kraft. Her aides are Mrs. J. H. Achten, Mrs. N. L. Mudd, Mrs. Mary Parks, Mrs. Oscar Peterson, Mrs. Pearl Robinson and Mrs. Craig Richey.
