 BARBARA REASON MI 4-4111
Little Girl Feted On First Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Long, Sr., 6636 Luhaer, recently gave a birth party for their granddaughter, Barbara Stalleger, noting her first birthday. Besides plenty of ice cream, Barbara had a cake with two candles, one marking her age and one for the year to come. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stalleger, proved equal to the challenge of two candles and blew both out with one puff.

Among the guests at dinner were Barbara's sister Pat and brother Wally; her paternal grandmother, her great aunt, Mrs. Dwecki, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Y. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Terrell, and Mrs. Tom Long, Dr. and Mrs. Ned Kalder and Dr. and Mrs. John Long.

LOOKS LIKE CHRISTMAS
 This section is getting dressed up for Christmas.
 Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Goldsmith of Oakland drive, are among those who have already added the little touch around their home. A huge tree, fully decorated with lights and ornaments stands in the yard. On the porch is a smaller tree and Santa Claus.

Several Old Mill road homes have been decorated, including that of the A. G. Fairman's, who have outlined the house in lights. A large blue neon star flashes on and off at one corner.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McAuley had two trees and a cute Santa sitting by the front door.
 A candy cane, tied with red satin ribbon, decorated the mailbox at the Robert Beaton home.
 Howard C. (Pop) Silverberg, has put two huge red candles on either side of the door. Santa Claus rides across the side porch on a sleigh drawn by prancing reindeer.
 A popular current pastime is piling the whole family into the car and touring the neighborhood to see how lovely it looks.
