

Plan to Attend DAC Yule Party

Many from the area have expressed their intention to attend the Detroit Athletic Club's two Christmas season parties. The first, planned for Dec. 5, will be the 14th annual Edgar A. Guest Night, when the noted Detroit poet will be the guest of honor at a 7 p.m. dinner. Attending the opener will be Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Maffett and guests Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Hodgkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walsh; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kinsey with houseguests Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Gray of Glen Lake.

Others from the area attending the opener are the Ray E. Forsythe, John C. Hammons, William S. Spiegala, Clarence C. Otter, Percy K. Lounds, William J. Blacks, Walter Kueckelmann, Merritt D. Hills and E. E. Lawlor.

The second program will open Dec. 8, with ten evening appearances of Carl Brisson, the top-hatted singer.

To Complete Plans For ESA Yule Fete

Mrs. Leonard Orr, 6433 Sheringham, will be among the members of Epiphany Sigma Alpha sorority who will gather in the Spokholm restaurant, Detroit, Dec. 22 for their annual Christmas dinner party and revelation of secret pals. Final plans for the party and discussion of hand-made Christmas gifts will be made Dec. 8 when the sorority meets in the home of Mrs. William Lutz, 679 Kings Highway Lincoln Park, Mrs. George Vegelin and Mrs. Roland Sheell, of Detroit, will speak.

Huckleberry Garlands Deck Episcopal Church

Garlands of huckleberry traced the aisle of St. Alban's Episcopal church in Columbus, Ohio, when Nancy Johnson became the bride of William Sydney Gilbreath III, on Saturday. The Rev. Robert E. Leake officiated at the afternoon candlelight ceremony before a setting of huckleberry trees at the altar and fan-shaped bouquets of white chrysanthemums on the altar table.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derral Bush Johnson of Columbus, Ohio. Her husband's parents are the William Sydney Gilbreath, Jr., of Puritan avenue, semi-cascade bouquet of white tertiery orchids.

MAID of honor was her sister, Sarah Johnson. Other attendants were Elinor Vorys and Sybil Ege of Columbus; Audrey Carroll of Montclair, N. J.; Mrs. James Dwight Dana of Lawton, Okla.; Mrs. Louis F. Polk, Jr., of Dayton, Ohio; and Mrs. Jerald D. O'Koon of Drexel Hills, Pa.

All attendants wore winter blue waltz length dresses of silk faille accented with velvet. The princess dresses were fashioned with bateau necklines. A wide band of deep blue velvet at the neck was silhouetted by puffs of silk. Brief sleeves and full bouffant skirts completed the details.

Velvet leaves in winter blue created the half-hats which tapered at the brow in a style similar to the bridal headdress. They carried semi-cascades of white shattered carnations.

Her Belgium princess lace veil, mounted over illusion, was caught by orange blossoms at the crown. The veil cascaded to a full cathedral length. The orange blossoms as well as the veil were worn by the bride's mother. She carried a

Pontiac Symphony Plans Yule Music

Christmas music sung by the MacDowell Male chorus will highlight a concert to be given by Pontiac Symphony Orchestra Tuesday, Dec. 7 at 8:30 in Lincoln junior high school auditorium.

The 50 voice chorus directed by George Patmar, is recognized as one of the finest in Michigan.

They will sing: "Three Songs for Christmas," by Clare Grundman; "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," Bach; "Hallelujah, Amen," Handel and "White Christmas," Irving Berlin.

The orchestra is composed of both amateur and professional musicians from all over the country and the Detroit Symphony orchestra.

Directed by Francesco Di Biasi of Detroit, the orchestra is in its third successful season. Celia Merrill Turner of Bloomfield Hills, violinist, is associate conductor.

Society deadline is 5 p.m. each Tuesday.
