Newcomers Celebrate First Holiday in New Residence

Celebrating their first Thanksgiving in their new home last week, were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Whittlesey, and daughters Susan, nine, and Nancy, eight, formerly of Schenectady, N. Y. The Whittleseys moved from temporary quarters on Villa, in Birmingham, to 18856 Hillcrest boulevard, two weeks ago. He is affiliated with General Electric corporation, in Detroit.

The A. G. Wables, former resident at the Whittlesey's Hillcrest address, moved about three weeks ago to Marshall, where he has a Buick agency. The Wables and children, Linda, Pat, Stephen and Christine, are living in a rented home there, while they select a house full of new toys serves as a constant reminder to Mrs. Bernard O'Meara, of Riverside drive, that Christmas is coming. With Mrs. Richard Mrowczynski, of Lathrup, she is acting as co-

MSC Students' Troth Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Alger Swaney, 805 Hedding road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lou Swaney, to Courtney Alan Lecklider, Dr. and Mrs. Arlington F. Lecklider of Grosse Pointe are the parents of the prospective bridegroom.

Miss Swaney is a graduate of East Grand Rapids high school and is a member of the junior class at Michigan State college where she is affiliated with Alpha Phi. She is nationally known for her water skiing and for several years has won high honors at National Water Ski tournaments.

Courtney is a graduate of Grosse Pointe high school and a senior at Michigan State college, where he is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and Excelsior, senior men's honor society.

They are planning an evening wedding, March 29, at Memorial chapel at the campus at MSC.

Dialogue to Give Lodge's Opinions On Russia and UN

The Dec. 7 meeting of the Ruth Shain International Relations class will be the last until after the holiday season. The first 1956 session will be on Jan. 17.

At the current meeting, scheduled for 10 a. m. at the Community House, Mrs. William M. Kellogg and Mrs. Shain will present a dialogue on an interview with Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge at the United Nations, when he discussed "shall We Expel Russia from D-N".

chairman for the donation drive sponsored by the Seton guild, for the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher home. The toys are being amassed by the guild for Christmas giving to the children at the home.

In addition to buying toys, sponsors of the affair also hope that proceeds from the tea will buy a new school bus for the home. General chairman of the tea is Mrs. Joseph Noethen, of Magnolia.

Nancy Lane came home last week from Albion college to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, the Arthur Lanes, of Bedford road, and her grandparents, the Joseph Lanes, at their home on 12-Mile road.

Too late for Thanksgiving, but in plenty of time for an early Christmas celebration, was Arthur Lane, Jr., who came home on leave from Ft. Bliss, Texas, last week.

end, His orders to report at Camp Gordon, at Augusta, Ga., on Dec. 10.

NEW ARRIVALS
It's a boy for the Peter Czerniak, of Kirkness road, who was born Nov. 20 at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, in Pontiac. They also have a daughter, Micki, four.

The alumni of Mu Phi Epsilon sorority who dropped in on Mrs. Archie Brown at her Kirkness road home last Friday night, brought a baby shower along with them. Tiny honoree of the party was two-month-old Candace Ann Brown.

All musically inclined, the Browns and their other two children, Melody, 12, and Bruce, 9, are sure it's only a question of a few years before Candace will choose to add another instrument to the family "orchestra" which is now composed of a violin, two pianos, and a clarinet.

John Cataldo, of Birchwood road, will be the featured violin soloist at the Christmas musicale, on Dec. 9. He will be accompanied by Mrs. James Gillen, of Franklin.

Three West Beverly women who will appear on the program with the chorus, are Mrs. Kenneth Manuel, of Devonshire road, Mrs. Douglas Witters, of Kirkshire road, and Mrs. George Souter, of Riverside drive.

The Allan Summers, visitors for two days last week in the Beaconfield road home of the Jere Darroughs, hail from another Beverly Hills, on Chicago's south side.

MAKE AUTO

Real honest-to-goodness American ingenuity is being demonstrated by Dick and Bobby Milks and Larry Rubly, as they scoot up and down Kirkshire road in their homemade "car".

Made from an assortment of wagon wheels and boards scavenged from their basements, and powered by an old lawnmower motor, the vehicle has become the envy of all the boys' pals, who congregate en masse each afternoon after school to go for a spin.

The new car was put to good use last week, when Larry and Bobby drove it from door to door to collect old clothes for a drive sponsored by Boy Scout Troop 11-27, which Larry heads up this year as patrol leader. The boys
