MRS. ROBERT H. WALKER

East Beverly

JOAN SPIEGEL MI 4-8739

The Thanksgiving holiday kept mothers busy over the stove, and fathers busy carting their young ones to the Christmas parade. But it was fun for all, and probably not a few people are still munching turkey sandwiches.

And people came and went—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds, Jr., of Verona circle had the Thanksgiving dinner at her home this year for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds, Sr., for sister, Joan Reynolds, and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, all of Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson of Arlington entertained her mother, Mrs. Louise Simpson who traveled from Harsell, Ont. for the holiday. Also joining the family were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Veth, of Clawson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Booth of Buckingham had their Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Conley, who came from Chicago.

Also home for the holiday weekend was Kitty Schoonmaker from Michigan State, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Schoonmaker of Birchwood roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Newman of Arlington drove to Cleveland with their two children Peggy and Douglas to spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weatherhead.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin of Buckingham spent their weekend in South Bend as excited spectators of the Notre Dame-Southern California game, after which the Martins went on to Niles, visiting friends.

Back just in time for Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hughes, who with their three daughters had been visiting both parents in Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cratty and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hughes.

Saturday, Nov. 27, little Janie Hughes celebrated her third birthday with a party in her home. Her guests were Carol and Susie Leonard, Craig and Christine Mellinger, Fanny Mae and Nancy Yarbly and sister Kathy Fluege.

GS TROOP 371 November 29 was a big day for members of Girl Scout Troop 374. Two other Birmingham troops joined the group for a tour of the Very Best Candy company in Detroit. The company put on a show for the girls and all were happy recipients of samples of candy. Girls from this area attending were Joan Custance, Anne M. Gartney, and Kathleen Wholihan.

Honeymooners Motor To Ft. Lauderdale

Antique ivory taffeta combined with alencon lace was worn by Joan Marie Edwards when she exchanged wedding vows with Robert Harrison Walker at 3 p.m., Saturday. The Rev. William C. Norvell read the rites in Christ Church Cranbrook. A reception followed in the church parlors.

Alencon lace formed the short sleeves as well as the upper part of the empire styled bodice featuring a portrait neckline. Watteau pleats accented the skirt which swept into a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a princess cap of lace edged with tiny pearls. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of fujumums mixed with snowdrift.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Reed Edwards, 1882 Kirkshire. Robert's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Lewis Walker of Jackson.

EMERALD green iridescent ballerina length gowns were worn by Mrs. John E. Bull, matriarch of honor, and Nancy Chapel and Susan Mock, bridesmaids. They carried semi-casualties of white shasta mums and ivy.

Donald M. Teer, Jr., of Chicago, Ill., was best man. Ushers were Arthur D. Rice of Flint, Peter Butterfield, Dr. Blaine B. Johnson and George Greenwell, Jr., all of Jackson.

MRS. Edwards had a cyathodium orchid pinned to her mauve colored taffeta gown. Mrs. Walker wore a copper colored peau de soie gown and a corsage of green cypripediums.

The couple will motor to Ft. Lauderdale for two weeks. To start her trip the bride donned a brown and light blue plaid suit with brown accessories and a salmon colored hat. She had a snowdrift corsage.

Out of town guests included Roswell B. Hopkins, grandfather of the bride, and Mrs. Ruth H. Scott, aunt of the bride, both of Ghent, Ohio. Mrs. Ann W. Stebbins of Jackson and Mrs. Theodora C. Daniels of Gettysburg, Pa.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
