Special Education Program Summary For Southfield PTA

A report on the progress of the special education program, presented last June by Oakland county school workers for handicapped and exceptional children will be given by Paul Thomas, county administrator for the program.

Thomas will speak before the Dec. 7 meeting of the Southfield Area Council of PTA. The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the high school art room.

He will discuss what the group has accomplished and give a brief analysis of future plans, a list of suggested ways in which the PTA can assist.

Thomas has a wide background in the field, having been professor of special education at Illinois State Normal before coming to Oakland county.

Refreshments will be served during the get-acquainted social hour to follow the program.

MRS. LEE HARDY SHAY

Pink Lace, French Net Worn for Friday Rites

A pale pink chantilly lace and French net gown was worn by Barbara Ackerly Boegehold when she became the bride of Second Lieutenant Lee Hardy Shay. The draped bodice was accented with an off shoulder portrait neckline and short sleeves apliqued with lace. The bouffant skirt fell gracefully in tiers of net and lace blending into a chapel train. A coronet of matching lace leaves secured her veil of French illusion. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of stephanotis and pathos vines centered with a white orchid which she wore as a going away corsage.

Wedding vows were exchanged at 7:30 p.m., Friday, at Westminster Presbyterian church with the Rev. John Arthur Visser officiating. A reception followed at the Hotel Statler.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lindley Boegehold of Pontiac. Lt. Shay's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hardy Shay of Maple road.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Ann Boegehold. Bridesmaids were Mary McAlpine of Detroit, Mrs. Howard W. Christenson of Port Huron, Mrs. Alan Boegehold of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. John Boegehold of West Point, Ky.

The attendants were gowned alike in haltering length frocks of blue spun silk. Tinted matching hats completed their ensemble. They carried enracent bouquets of scarlet king carnations and rapture roses. The honor attendant's was accented with loops of pink velvet tubing forming a bow in the center.

Best man was William Goodwin of St. Clair Shores. Seating the guests were Alan and John Boegehold, brothers of the bride, Jack Gettiner and Clayton Chapman.

FOR HER daughter's wedding Mrs. Boegehold wore a floor length gown of sweetheart blue with a bodice of imported lace and full flowing skirt of chiffon. Mrs. Shay wore a navy silk tulle floor length gown with matching hat and accessories. Each carried, pinned to her bag, a white purple centered orchid.

For going away the bride wore a costume suit fashioned along straight lines. The dress was of sable jersey topped by a box jacket of matching tweed. With this, she wore a small beige hat and brown accessories.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will drive to El Toro, Calif., where Lt. Shay is stationed as a Marine Air Force pilot.
