DANCING at Hillcrest Country club Saturday night were members of the newly organized Suburban dinner dance club. Special hit numbers in keeping with the theme were "Time for a Change" and "Colic Bounce." (Eccentric Photo)

'Baby Bounce' Theme Of Suburban's Dance

A new organization, its initial celebration and new officers, was reason enough for the Suburban club to call its first dinner dance party "Baby Bounce."

The dinner-dance club, organized this fall, is limited to 60 married couples who must reside in the Birmingham area.

Members gathered Saturday night at Hillcrest Country club, which was decorated to resemble a nursery. Table decorations were carried out in the same theme. Dance programs were in the form of birth announcements and identification tags were miniature duffers pinned on with safety pins. Stage curtains were decked with sparkly letters "Baby Bounce."

Specialty dances in keeping with the party theme were "Time for a Change" and "Colic Bounce."

SATURDAY night's committee was headed by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sauburn, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Teising, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Combs.

A semi-formal dinner is planned for Dec. 18. Serving on the committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phelan, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Roofner, Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Lemle and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sauburn.

Wayne L. Combs heads the group as president. Other officers are Paul Moffett, vice president; Theresa Kotelen, treasurer; Phyllis Pritchard, secretary; and Laraine Moffett, membership chairman.

The suburbanites will meet regularly the second Saturday of each month through dance after the December party.

MR. AND MRS. C. E. KAMPA

Fete Parents At BC Club

Birmingham Country club was the scene of the 50th wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Kampa of Longacre avenue, Detroit on Nov. 27.

The parents of Mrs. Drew C. Hainline of Birmingham and Mrs. William Y. Burger of Highland Park, the Kampas greeted 60 relatives and friends invited by the Hainlines and Burgers for cocktails and dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Kampa have one grandchild, Carol Faye Hainline.

Cubs Tour Plant

Seven Cubs, the Cub chief and three guests of Don three, Park B-23, toured the plant at the General Motors open house in Pontiac last week.

Chi Omegas Hear Mrs. F. D. Webb

Guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the North Suburban alumnae of Chi Omega will be Mrs. Frank D. Webb, well known in the area for her garden club work.

Mrs. Webb is past president of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association and is at present vice-president of the WSPGA of Michigan.

Her talk and demonstration on holiday decorations will follow the dinner which will be served at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. John J. Southard of Birmingham is opening her home for the meeting.

Chairman for the meet is Mrs. Leonard Fong of Berkeley. Her assistants are Mrs. James Morlich and Mrs. William Loeb, both of Ferndale.

Seek Paving Of N. Bates

Before city commissioners act on a petition for paving of Bates street from Willets north, they want City Manager D. C. Ebert's ideas on the specific type of improvement to be made.

Asking for the concrete are Wake Corp. and Jacobson's, Inc., which together have provided a large off-street parking area at that point.
