Thom Asks Encouragement Of Young Area Artists

Robert Thom, Bloomfield township resident who has become noted for creation of the History of Pharmacy illustration series, was principal speaker at the recent dinner at which Scarab club winners were told.

ROBERT THOM

Thom's talk was highlight of the press preview of the winning illustrations and designs for the club's advertising arts exhibit. The exhibit went on public display shortly thereafter, being currently open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily and from 2 to 5 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays in the Scarab galleries at 217 Farnsworth in Detroit.

IN HIS TALK THOM developed the theme of this year's exhibit, "Detroit Art to Detroit Artists." Thom lives at 6160 W. Surray in the township.

He said, "The youth of Detroit must be encouraged to develop their talent through the reestablishment of our city as a primary advertising art market. Otherwise they will bring their talents to fruition elsewhere, even though Detroit is a great manufacturing and a principal source of national advertising."

The exhibit will last until Dec. 20 when it begins on a tour of art schools and museums throughout the country.
