Pre-Holiday Dances Slated For Weekend Entertainment

Gala plans for pre-holiday dances interest many residents these days. Royal-Oak-Beverly Hills Improvement association will hold a dinner dance at the Bonnie Brook Country Club Saturday night.

The same evening members and friends of the Upton school PTA will attend the Yule-Frolic at the school where the Dierkiss Brothers orchestra will provide the music and Jim Schulte will be master of ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pinn have made arrangements for music and a caller for the square dance to be held in the Parker school the same evening. It is also PTA sponsored.

Earl Grisdale, Edie Setina, Kermit Pickett, Milton Guy, Rod Buchanan, William Lutz and Matt Setina are making arrangements for the December dance of the Beverly Hills Dance club. It is to be held Dec. 11 at the Sylvan Glen Country club.

Royal Oak PTA members proved generous with their blood last Tuesday when they went over their quota of 250 pints at the PTA sponsored Red Cross blood bank held at the First Baptist church in Royal Oak.

Brownie Troop 482 of the Upton school presented their principal, E. J. Rothig with a well-packed box of groceries for a needy family the day before Thanksgiving. The girls earned the food by doing extra household chores.

Don Wilkinson flew from New York last Wednesday night to spend the holiday weekend with his parents of Robinson avenue. Saturday he served as an usher at the marriage of his cousin, Nancy Ann McCourie and Arthur Van Antwerp, Jr. at St. Matthew's church in Detroit.

The Joseph H-cssets returned to their home on Elmwood avenue in Tor Thanksgiving after a Florida vacation. They drove south with the Bob Eberths of Rochester and traveled south along the eastern coast and north along the gulf coast before they flew home.

Bob Riley spent the weekend with his parents at their Arlington road home. Bob attends Albion college.
