MRS. KENNETH ALLEN KLEYN

Janet Caryl Becomes Bride
On Thanksgiving's Eve

Mrs. Kenneth Allen Kleyn, who was Janet Lillian Caryl before 6:30 p.m. rites on Thanksgiving eve, and her bridegroom are on a wedding trip to London, Ontario.

The couple, who will reside in Ann Arbor, spoke their marital vows and exchanged rings in Oxford Congregational church before the Rev. Lawrence Graves. Only the immediate family was present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Caryl, 887 Watkins, while the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. George Kleyn of Pontiac. He has been residing in Ann Arbor.

WEARING A WHITE WALTZ length gown, the bride carried a Bible covered with white satin and tied with a white orchid and ribbon streamers. The gown featured a lace bodice scalloped as its boat neckline and layers of net over its lace skirt. Her veil was shoulder length.

Jean Kozegoshop of Pontiac wore a yellow net waltz length gown trimmed with brown velvet and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations, as she and Charles Cherron of East Lansing attended the bridal couple.

for Goodwill Dance

Amid holiday decor of aqua, shocking pink and gold, Birmingham and other supporters of the Junior group Goodwill Industries will dance Saturday evening at the Lochmoor Country Club.

Opening the Christmas season, the "Holiday Tea Dance" will feature music of Johnny Lester and his orchestra.

Birmingham area members attending include the John D. Benefield of Bingham road, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wagner of Abbey road, the Robert N. Greens of Turtle Lake Farms, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Aitick of Kenesaw and the William S. Coopers of Golf-

Baldwin Story Hour Opens Yule Programs

Continuing her Saturday morning story hour, Kathleen Picket will, this week, begin a series of Christmas stories. The introduction will be the story of the Elves and the Shoemaker from Grimm's Fairy Tales.

As the Christmas time draws nearer, she said, "more and more Yule stories will be used."

Other tales on this week's program will be LeGrand's "Cay'n Dow and the Hole in the Doughnut", and a story from Danish folklore, "The Foolish Lad."

The story hour, open for all children from kindergarten up, begins at 10:30 a.m., lasting about 45 minutes.

Mrs. Clarence A. Kramer and Mrs. William Granley are co-chairmen of the event.
