Second Graders Prepare Breakfast for Mothers

Invitations were carefully written and delivered by Miss Wheeler's second grade class of Wing Lake school inviting their mothers to a breakfast in their room, Nov. 23, from 9 to 12. A few days before the breakfast, the children went down to Wright's grocery store in Birmingham where each child picked up the items on his list and paid for it at the cashier's desk.

When the mothers arrived at school, they were greeted and shown to seats by their hosts and hostesses. The hot plates had already been plugged in and the girls were busy scrambling eggs and making coffee with no assistance from either teacher or parent. Everything went smoothly except for a few agonizing moments when the eggs refused to harden and the coffee, to percolate! The trouble was soon traced to a burnt out fuse, quickly replaced.

Along with the eggs and coffee, the boys made toast, spread with jelly, which was served by the children. A choice of tomato juice, an apple or a banana completed the menu.

After their breakfast, mothers enjoyed a program in which the pupils told them from what animals various great cuts come and menus of their favorite breakfasts.

Entertaining friends at a recent dinner-bridge party were the Ralph Darlings of Summerville road. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Heber Fisk, Wing Lake, Mr. and Mrs. William Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Case of Detroit.

On Nov. 19, the Darlings entertained dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Horrocks and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Husen of Rosedale Park. Following dinner, the couples played scrabble.

At the dinner party of the James Hosners of Tomona Colony, guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. Leckie, Sylvan Lake Shores; Mr. and Mrs. S. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. S. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bartholomew and Kathryn Rowley of Romeo.

On Nov. 25, for the first time in four years, the I. A. Homrichs and their children were seated together for a family dinner celebrating Thanksgiving and the birthday of their son, Del Homrich.

Present in the Homrich's Carey lane home were Del Homrich, his wife and children, Christine, Patricia and David, Royal Oak; their daughter and son-in-law, the Albert Kirby's, and daughters, Karen, Michelle and Marvin, Royal Oak; their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. Homrich and daughter, Alicia, Romeo; son, Tom Homrich, Carey lane, and Mrs. Homrich's mother, Mrs. Joseph Van Bergen of Ludington.

BROWNIE TROOP 164
On Thanksgiving day, Brownie troop 164 presented over 40 clay figures of Puritan men and women to convalescent children at St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Pontiac, along with a card signed by all the girls.

Mrs. Jack Mustard, their lead-days with Mrs. Brower's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Glyder, in Long Island, N. Y.

Home again after a Thanksgiving visit to Chicago, Ill., are the John Kershaws, Jr., of Surrey road. They were the houseguests of Kershaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson Kershaw, Sr.

The Harold Richardson's and children, Susan, Walter, Martha, James, Mary Bess, Johnny and Charles spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Richardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams in Fenton.

Back from Culver, Ind., are the Elmo Nurnes' and 11 year-old daughter, Patty, who were the guests of the Nurnes' son, Dennis, at Culver Military Academy, Nov. 24-29. Highlight of the visit for Patty was wearing her first formal dress to a Thanksgiving dance at the academy, as her brother's date.

PEGGY CARTER

The George Koehns and children, Karen and Jim, of Cherokee lane enjoyed Thanksgiving at the Gray City home of Mrs. Koehns' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur I. Gray. They also made a stopover in Saginaw to visit with Mrs. Koehns' brother, Lawrence Gray, and friends.

Wing Lake "sidewalk superintendents" are happily engaged in "overseeing" the work being done by Arden Mitchell, contractor for the beach and park project now under way. Anxious to accomplish as much as possible before freezing weather arrives, Mitchell has allowed neither rain nor cold to interfere with the progress of his work.

Dinner Party Tells Troth At Golf Club

A dinner party at the Detroit Golf club revealed the engagement of Peggy Carter to John Kemper Cannon. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Carter of Bloomfield Hills. The prospective bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cannon of Birmingham.

Miss Carter is a graduate of Lioggett school and attended Finch college in New York City. Her fiancé is a graduate of Yale University, class of 1954, where he was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta. He is now attending the University of Michigan Law School where he is a member of Phi Delta Phi.

Plans are being made for a Dec. 16th wedding.

Miss Carter's brothers, Debbie, Ricks and Billy, and Susan's sister, Paula.

Susan Cole entertained houseguest, Debbie Walsh of East Long Lake road, Nov. 25. The next day, the girls treated the younger members of their families to a play, "Sunk the Sailor", at the Birmingham Theatre. Enjoying them-

Reminiscing over his "first vacation" is 3 year-old Garry Darling of Woodland Pass, who spent a recent weekend at the Sunningdale home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Darling.

Turked into bed a full hour ahead of schedule so he could enjoy his first experience of sleeping in a "hip bed", Garry's only comment was, "so much nicer than my little crib at home!"

His brother, Tommy, enjoyed last weekend as the Darlings' guest, and brother, Ricks, has been invited for the weekend of Dec. 3.

OFF TO COLLEGE
Carol Fisk returned to Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, after spending Thanksgiving with parents, the Heber Fisks of Sheringham.

and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Nov. 29, to resume his studies at Hillsdale college, Hillsdale.

FOX CROFT WNGFC
Foxcroft Farm and Garden club is holding a special Guest-Day desert luncheon at the Birmingham Community House, 1:00 p.m., Dec. 6 for Foxcroft members and their guests.
