

December Bride Names Attendants

Donna Puls has named attendants to assist her when she becomes the bride of Harry Simanek, Dec. 18, in the First Presbyterian church.

Her sister, Sandra Puls, will act as maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Beverly Yates, Mariah Olds and Mrs. David Lehman. Little Carole Simanek, the prospective groom's niece, will be flower girl.

Harry has asked his brother, William Simanek, to be his best man. Paul Rank and two other brothers, Robert and David Simanek will usher.

Among the parties already honoring the bride elect was a miscellaneous shower given Wednesday by Marlon Olds. Guests included members of the faculty at Beverly school where Donna is a teacher.

Mrs. William Plevich, the former Helen Woolson, of Syracuse, was home last week visiting her parents and entertained at a personal luncheon shower.

Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Puls of Linden. Harry's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Simanek of Detroit.

Arrangements in Readiness For Holiday Fair Tomorrow

The Woman's Association of the Community Church Congregational will have their annual big project of the year on December 4. This year it will be at Fellowship Hall, Southfield road and 11½ Mile road. The time is from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Mrs. Harry Dale is fair chairman with the cooperation of the entire Association, youth groups and the Mariners, along with the men of the church. Snacks will be served from 11 a. m. until 2 p. m. and dinner from 5:30 to 7 p. m. Mrs. Elmer Shaver will be in charge of the dinner. Other helpers are Mrs. Ed Schuppert, Mrs. R. C. Butts, Mrs. Kenneth Farnham, Mrs. Nelson Kimberley, Mrs. Arthur Schuppert and Mrs. Ralph Bettison, will begin serving a complete dinner for adults and children.

The sale will be baked goods, home canned foods, cereals of cooked foods, ice cream, soups, toys and clothing for baby to the seven-year-old.

A special toy booth will be open this year. Youth groups will sell Christmas decorations for your tables and homes and there will be dart games and a fish pond. One of the highlights of the Fair will be the pony rides with a professional in charge.

BOY SCOUTS B-14
Committee members of Boy Scout Troop B-14 met at the House in the Woods on Friday, Nov. 26. The troop is sponsored by the Township Association of Lathrup Village. At the meeting future plans for the troop were discussed. Leon Harshman is chairman and on the committee are C. W. Zink, institutional representative; V. A. Zaitel and Robert E. Kwart, advancement and training; Charles Herr and Ted Garrison, camping; Leo Mueller, patrol advisor, and Dr. Robert Knighton, secretary-treasurer and troop physician. Albert Miller, Jr. is Scoutmaster and Charles Taylor is assistant Scoutmaster.

At Friday's meeting Lloyd Hart discussed scouting goals and projects in the area. Milton Rich was a guest at the meeting. The troop under the leadership of Bill Wilson is making plans for the sale of Christmas wreaths.

An interesting program is being planned for the Court of Honor on December 13 at Lathrup school. Many advancements will be made at this time and parents and friends are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon of Glenwood spent Thanksgiving day at Lathrup, where they were guests of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Porter, Sunbrook, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keiser, Battle Creek, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rankin in Rosedale.

Dinner guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dale of Sunbrook were the Reverend and Mrs. John Hoos of East California and Mr. and Mrs. William Arverson of Sunbrook and Roger Atkin of Detroit.

Home for the holiday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Evers of Lathrup boulevard were Mr. and Mrs. William Kellogg.
