Home Festively Decorated For Weekend of Entertaining

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stecker, Wing Lake road, is festively decorated in Christmas finery since their weekend of entertaining.

Saturday evening, they were hosts to a large cocktail buffet. Guests were the Charles Webers of Ann Arbor, the William Harjans, Donald Hooves, James Maunders and Don Maunders, all of Birmingham.

Wing Lake guests were the Edmund Buntigers, William Wilkins, Frasers, Edwood Engels, Thomas Earles, Bud Gonsou, Frank Broussiers, James Allen, Edward Boucots, Randall Crabbs and the Richard Garlicks.

Sunday, the Steckers had a family dinner for Marge's aunt and uncle. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fife, cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Schefield and Mr. and Mrs.

A double celebration, took place last weekend at the Fremont, Ohio home of Mrs. E. L. Rupperto, mother of Mrs. Richard Peters, Thurber road. The Peters family celebrate both her birthday and Christmas dinner.

FAMILY GATHERINGS

Don McIntyre, Thurber road, recently returned from a week's business trip to Boca Raton, Fla. Saturday evening the McIntyres, Fred and Jane, entertained at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. William Gary, Square Lake road and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vater, Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters, Thurber road and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Prentice, of Fenton, arrived later to complete the party.

During the week, Jane and sons, Freddie and Richard went to her parents' home. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Andrews, of Yale. Later, Don joined them for the Christmas weekend.

Another family get-together was under way Sunday for the Jack McKays, Lone Pine road. They drove to Marietta, Ga. to have dinner with Mrs. McKay's mother, Mrs. William Bucholz. Mrs. Bucholz then returned with the McKays to remain through the holidays.

A Wing Lake "first" has been rung up by the Frank Breischers, of Maple. They've just returned from a two-week vacation at the Casablanca, Miami.

Frank was also "first" on their deep-sea fishing expedition when he landed a 15 pound red snapper, biggest catch of the day.

They enjoyed the races at Tropical park and evenings spent at dancing, water-shows, movies and entertainment. They're high-lighting the trip for Mrs. Breischer was the luxurious round-trip flight.

NEW YORK VISITORS

Dr. and Mrs. W. Wilbur MacGregor, West Surrey, will meet their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilbur MacGregor, Jr., at the airport Christmas Eve. They arrive from New York. Guests for Christmas dinner will be Mrs. Carrie Evers, grandmother of Mrs. MacGregor, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kemp, all of Lake Forest, Ill.

Later in the afternoon they will be joined by Virginia O'Brien, fiancée of younger son, Charles. She will have shared Christmas dinner with her family in Birmingham.

Guild Entertains

St. Francis guild members entertained 35 persons at a Christmas supper and card party Sunday evening. The affair was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hourihan, Rackham boulevard. The Rev. Cyril Keating, pastor of the newly formed St. Bede Catholic parish, was present at the party.
