

MRS. JOHN KEMPER CANNON

Peggy Carter Wed In Home Ceremony

The bridal party centered an open winding stairway to the living room of the Stanley Allen Carter's Bloomfield Hills home when their daughter, Peggy, exchanged vows with John Kemper Cannon. The Rev. W. Glen Harris of the First Presbyterian church officiated at the candlelight ceremony at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, before members of the immediate families.

Peggy was dressed in a gown reflecting style details of long ago. Imported chanelle lace formed the long sleeves and outlined the portrait neckline which, accented with pearls and sequins, highlighted the molded tulle bodice. The front of the extremely full skirt was fashioned of the same rich lace delicately gathered and, in the back, three circular tiers of sparkling tulle extended from the waist and, swept to a short train. A halo of softly folded tulle encircled her sheer illusion veil of formal length, and the carried white orchids.

ATTENDING her sister as maid of honor, Jerady Ann Carter wore a white tulle dress featuring a bodice of holiday red tulle and studded with brilliants and draped in Polonaise manner over a skirt of white tulle. Her bouquet was an arrangement of red carnations and variegated ivy.

The bride's cousin, little Jeri Palmer, acted as flower girl in red velvet dress designed with a round neckline, short sleeves and ballerina skirt over a full petticoat. She wore matching ballroom slippers and carried a miniature bouquet to match that of the maid of honor. The bridesman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cannon of Safford road, asked his uncle John Kemper of Rocky River, Ohio, to be his best man. Groomsman were brothers of the bride, Robert A. Carter of Orchard Lake and Richard Carter of Birmingham.

Young Timmy Carter, nephew of the bride, dressed in a navy blue Eton jacketed suit, was ring bearer.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carter wore a long gown of emerald green tulle, she donned a tulle hat with a wide brim and covering shawl jacket. Her flower attendant wore green cyrillic orchids. Mrs. Cannon's gown was jewel-toned in garnet barthea silk sheath styled with semi-long sleeves and a V-neckline. She had

Southfield Group Wraps Yule Gifts For Young People

Christmas presents were the theme of the evening when Southfield Kiwanis group met Dec. 13 at the West 11 Mile road home of Mrs. John W. James.

In place of the customary gift exchange, members provided presents for young children and teenagers at University hospital in Ann Arbor. These, unwrapped, were taken to the Thursday meeting.

Another 1954 project is the gift of a shirt or dress from individual members, plus $25 from the club, which went to the Goodfellow for distribution to needy families.

A TWO-YEAR project of the "Queen" was the purchase of a 21-inch television set which was delivered by their president, Mrs. Glenn Schenckels on Dec. 11 to the Forney Clement project, University hospital.

It was announced that club officers would be installed at the Jan. 13 dinner meeting.

Studies in St. Louis

Among 11,000 students enrolled at Washington university at St.

West Beverly Area Residents Prepare For Christmas Activities

It is no where more evident than in West Beverly that the emphasis at Christmas, as always, is on the church, fireside and family.

For Mr. and Mrs. Julius Claus, Jr. (of the very Christmas-y name), Christmas will be an active day. They will leave their Beverly road home for church services in the morning, then gather up their two children, Ethel Marie, 17 months, and John Michael, 3 months, plus numerous Christmas gifts, and drive to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Claus, of Lower Straits lake, for buffet dinner.

After an exchange of gifts there, they will drive to Detroit for supper with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Glennie, where another tree will be waiting for them. On hand for Christmas day at the Thomas Kimmerly household on Buckingham road, will be their two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kimmerly, Jr. of Livonia, and the Jack Kimmerly of Detroit, with children, Marie, Brian and Rhonda Ann. Mrs. Kimmerly's sister, Miss N. Edith Lombard, of DePue, will also be with them for Christmas and the weekend.

The Adelbert McChesney and daughter, Virginia, Riggs side drive, will have Christmas dinner at the home of her brother, Donald W. Richards, at Wing Lake. Her mother, Mrs. Charles Richards, and sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Graham, of Royal Oak, will be there to complete the family gathering. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carruthers have come from Sarnia, Ont. to be with his sister, Mrs. W. F. Tyrer and her family, of Dunblaine road, until New Year's day. Gathered around the Tyrer's tree on Christmas eve will be their son, Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers, Mrs. Tyrer's sister and brother-in-law, the Harry Saviles, of Owosso, and her niece, Mary Ellen Carruthers, of Grand Rapids.

Visitors in the Warwick road home of the Howard Bells on the weekend of Dec. 11, were two friends from Mrs. Bell's school days, Mrs. Elsie Goodrich and Mrs. Florence McDonald, of Jackson. After dinner on Saturday night amid much chatting, the Bells and their two guests put together a Santa Claus and his time. At the Dec. 16 meeting of the West Beverly branch of the Woman's Farm and Garden association, members packed Christmas cookies into 86 coffee cans which they hand-decorated at their November meeting. Recipients of the festive fare will be a Pontiac Convalescent home and St. Elizabeth Briarbank home.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William E. Rigley, on Bedford road. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Donald Kaimbach and Mrs. Arthur Lane, of Bedford road.

On Dec. 11, members of the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi met in the home of Mrs. Newton Hadley, of Warwick road, for their annual Christmas meeting and party. Serving on the social committee were Mrs. Robert Watt and Mrs. William C. Long of Birmingham. Each of the Pi Phis who attended, brought a gift for the Oakland county children's home.

Even the lovely coffee can begins to put on airs at Christmas.

CHRISTMAS COOKIES
GIRL SCOUTS
Troop 411 Girl Scouts met Monday night for a Christmas party at the home of their co-leader, Mrs. Charles Vogel. For the past few weeks, troop members have been busy making large wire baskets, which they painted gold and adorned with greens, ribbons and cones. Another recent project has been the making of Christmas gifts for their mothers.

Guests Welcomed At Longmeadow By C. E. Wilsons

The C.E. Wilsons, arriving just in time for Christmas from Washington, D.C., have announced that they would like to greet their guests in their usual holiday tradition from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Longmeadow. The open house is a tradition they have maintained for 20 years.

Christmas Greetings

To our old friends, our new friends and our friends to be we extend our best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year

Dimas Furs
227 S. WOODWARD AVE.
BIRMINGHAM, MICH.

Warmest Greetings To The Nicest People On Earth

"Our Customers" On Christmas

In extending the season's best wishes we look forward with great pleasure to the continuance of the very pleasant association we enjoy together. And aside from business relationships, we wish you personal happiness in this coming year.

La Belles
AND PERSONNEL
Birmingham's Shop of Books, Stationery & Gifts

Christmas is when we open our hearts and say the nice things that we meant to say all through the year... like wanting everyone to know how deeply we treasure the warmth of friendship... like wishing you well with honest concern in a sincere renewal of the real meaning of Christmas, for it is only the caring and sharing that makes all men as one at this most exciting time of the year.

...and God bless everyone

Jacobson's
BIRMINGHAM