Girl Scout Leaders Meet To Plan Future Activities

The monthly meeting of the neighborhood Girl Scout leaders was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Kipp, on Spring Valley Court, on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 15. Present were Mrs. Floyd Layman, Mrs. Harold Jones, Mrs. James Roberts, Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Mrs. John Nahabedian, Mrs. E. E. Murray, Mrs. Stanley Terner, Mrs. Lee Hanson, Mrs. D. G. Hampton, Mrs. Donald Waller, Mrs. Robert Smith, and the hostess.

Mrs. Murray, chairman of calendar sales, reported that the two troops working on the project had a total sale of 233 calendars. A nominating committee was appointed to select a delegate to the annual Council held in May at the Birmingham Community House. Mrs. Robert Smith will be chairman, and Mrs. Carl's Brovachy and Mrs. Perry Greiner will assist.

Mrs. Hanson gave a report on the November regional conference, which was held in Grand Rapids. Various future programs were discussed, and registration fees for leaders and troop committee members, together with the initial gift to the treasury of the two new Beowulf troops, were received from the sponsoring organization, the Walnut Lake PTA.

Having been born on Christmas Eve, and appropriately named Holly, the youngest member of the Frank Morton family will celebrate her birthday Friday evening, when she will have reached the joyous age of four years. Enjoying the party with her, and eagerly awaiting the arrival of Santa Claus, who also brings her birthday cake, will be Carolyn Whims, Nancy Phelps, Sherill Pez, and Gail Nahabedian.

GREENS WORKSHOP

The Walnut Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden club held a Christmas greens workshop last Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. C. Banker, and about 20 of the members stayed for most of the day, absorbed in their jobs of turning out beautiful wreaths and swags.

Assembling the greens was the job of Mrs. Parker Rockwell. Coffee and sandwiches were served to the busy workers, who left at the end of their professional-looking decorative pieces.

Christmas warmth and hospitality poured from the Long home.

on Lawndale both Saturday and Sunday evenings of last weekend, as Kenneth and Ruth entertained at open house parties for friends from the northwest section of Detroit, and from around the lake area.

CUB PACK 41

Officers and members of the committee of Cub Pack 41, Walnut Lake school, met on Tuesday, Dec. 7, with the Den mothers, the cubmaster, and his assistants, at the home of Keith Symon, on Putnam drive.

Plans were made for last Friday's visit to the Ford Rotunda, when the boys were accompanied by their Den mothers and dads. The Blue and Gold dinner on Feb. 24, and tentative plans for a visit to the Shrine Circus in February were also discussed during the evening.

The next committee meeting will be held Jan. 25, and the next Pack meeting Jan. 27.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS

Welcome to the John D. Gambee, of 4801 Walnut Lake road, who have lived in the neighborhood long enough to be settled and quite well acquainted.

Gambee heads the John Gambee company, selling linens and drapes on the popular "party" plan. There are four children in the family, Paul, who is nine years old, John, seven, David, five, and Lynn Irene, two-and-a-half years old.

Welcome also to the Arthur St. Clair family, on East Dartmore road, who moved here from Milwaukee, Wis. St. Clair is connected with the Fanner Manufacturing company.

Their family includes Jo Ann, eleven years old, Michael, eight, Patrick, five, and Wendy, now one-year old.

Mrs. St. Clair comments on the hospitality shown the newcomers by their neighbors, and how delighted they are with such friendliness.

More newcomers we are happy to welcome are the George H. DeStain family, who have been waiting patiently to get into their new home on South Clunbury road before Christmas. They moved here from Edinburgh road in Detroit.

DeMann is connected with the Ford Motor company, in the offices at Middlefield and Plymouth roads. The family has a daughter, Janis, a junior at Birmingham High school, and a married son, Gerald, who lives in Detroit. They also have two young grandchildren.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

MRS. GLEN MEREDITH

Meredith-Robb Rites Said in Yule Setting

White chrysanthemums and green foliage blended into a tree-like arrangement upon the altar, and soft burning white tapers in seven-branched candelabra provided a setting in the Village church, Kansas City, Mo., for the marriage of Susan Jane Robb and Glen Meredith. A sparkling Christmas air of white bows and flowers against an evergreen background was carried throughout the church.

The Rev. Robert H. Meredyth officiated at the ceremony at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 18. Mrs. Arthur Larson, organist, accompanied Mrs. Laurie Russell as she sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Bruce Robb of Johnson City, Kan., formerly of Beverly Hills. Glen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Meredyth of Matryville, Mo.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of blush-pink herbolium silk and alencon lace, designed with a deep shoulder neckline and outlined with lace motifs and crescent bequins. The long sleeves tapered over her hands. A fitted bodice complemented the very full skirt of floor length that extended into an all-overside train. Her veil of bluish tulle fell from a small cloche of silk and lace to below her waistline. She carried a tapering cascade bouquet of pink aristocrat roses, petite roses, and variegated ivy foliage.

The maid of honor was Nathalie Nichols of Merriam, Kan. She wore a gown of aquamarine blue sheer silk, designed with a deep shoulder neckline outlined with a double-fold pertha collar that formed a cap sleeve. The dress had a semi-princess bodice contrasting a very full skirt of waltz length in her hair. Miss Nichols wore a long flat bow of matching color. She carried a semi-crescent bouquet of clustered pink carnations and green holly.

BRIDESMAIDS were Eva Stone, Birmingham, and Miss Lavone Locke of Spring Hill, Kan. Their dresses were styled after the maid of honor's, and were of the same shade. They carried similar bouquets, complementing the flower carrier's. Flower girl, Debra Shank, wore pink and white gandy. She carried a delicate kissing ball, clustered with pink carnations.

Best man was Frank Johnson, Columbia, Mo., and the groomsmen were Mark Henninger of Lawrence, Kan., and Bruce Robb of Fairway, Kan., brother of the bride.

THE BRIDES' mother wore a blue-green translucent tulle dress, a small white feather hat, white gloves, and she carried a corsage of white phloxopsis orchids. The groom's mother wore a blue silk ensemble, beige accessories, and carried a corsage of beige eymbidium orchids.

The reception after the ceremony was held at the Tomahawk Hills Country club, with the receiving line at the fireplace which was adorned with arrangements of pink tapers, pink chrysanthemums, and evergreens. The pink cake-table was graced with silver candelabra, clustered with garlands of holly and pale pink carnations; all similar to the decoration around the base of the cake. The punch table, lighted by a nearby Christmas tree, decorated with pink bows and snow balls, was spread with a green cloth and held small figurines of Christ-

Suburban Club Uses Snow Theme

"Snow Ball" inside as well as outside was the theme of the Suburban club's dinner-dance Saturday at Hillcrest Country club. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cooper were chairman of the arrangements assisted by a committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pheasant, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Roofner, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Parry and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lemie.

Special invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grand, Mr. and Mrs. Max Mordin, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Guibord, Mr. and Mrs. Ber Gouine, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Gage, Mr. and Mrs. William Grimmsman, Rosemary Drapo and Allen Wright.

Committee named for the January dance includes Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McPhail, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pages and Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Etkesheim.
