Barbara Faulkner Wed In Blush Pink Gown

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene of a ceremony on Saturday which united in marriage Barbara Carol Faulkner and Lawrence D. Peck. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, assisted by the Rev. Harold E. Towne, officiated at the 8 o'clock rite.

The bride was gowned in blush tullea fashioned with a full skirt and short train. The round neck line was accented with a wide lace edging and long sleeves came to the wrists. Her finger-tip veil was of Brussels lace. Barbara carried white roses and lilies of the valley.

The Edward C. Faulkners of Yorkshere are the parents of the bride. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Peck of Birmingham boulevard.

HONOR attendants were Mrs. Robert E. Esch, sister of the bride, and Barbara Lee Gibson, matron and maid of honor, respectively. Assisting as brides-

Neighbors Greet Festive Season with Open Houses

As Christmas is just two days away, everyone is in a breathless rush trying to find the elusive stocking gift, wrapping that last minute package, and making final preparations for holiday entertaining—to say nothing of clearing the debris for a glittering Christmas morning.

Carrying out a long-time family tradition, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Laffoon will have a neighborhood open house on Christmas eve for the fourth year in their Arlington drive home.

Christmas eve will find Mr. and Mrs. James Martin of Buckingham busy with a family cook house. Among the group will be their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John McCarty from Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Awry.

On Christmas day, the Borgoses with their three daughters, Bonnie, Brooke, and Laurel will go to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Grinnell of Lake Angelus. Also there for Christmas will be Mrs. Borgoses's two sisters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Awry of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Porter of Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weatherhead have come from Willoughby, Ohio to spend Christmas with their family, the Clinton Newmans and their children, Peggy and Douglas.

Also coming from out-of-town for the holidays are Mr. and Mrs.

In Vesper Carolling

Susan Peterson, of 885 Westwood took part in the Gleec club presentation of Benjamin Brittain's "A Ceremony of Carols" Dec. 13 at Mary Baldwin college's Christmas vesper service. The daughter of Hamilton Peterson and a freshman at the college, she began her Christmas vacation last weekend.
