West Beverly
VIRGINIA DETWILER MI 4-3820

Members of the West Beverly women's bowling league attended a luncheon Dec. 20 at Fox and Houghs inn. After an exchange of grab bag gifts, the party moved next door to the Bloomfield lanes, where league members completed their first two rounds of bowling. First position day will be next Monday.

Probably the most enthusiastic bowler at the party was Mrs. Ada Van Dresser, of Warwick road, "the baby of the league," who attended with her daughter, Mrs. H. D. Stoddard, of Warwick road. At 75, Mrs. Van Dresser bowls three times each week, and on Dec. 13, she made a difficult 3-7 split while bowling with the league.

Two stockings hung at the fireplace this Christmas, when Dr. and Mrs. Howard Smith and the James Powells gathered around the tree at their Buckingham road home. One was for young Debra Louise, the Powells' first child and the Smiths' grandchild, born Nov. 18 in Royal Oak. The other stocking was for the family dog, Tuffy.

Also home for the festivities was Debra's uncle, Howard F. Smith, Jr., a first-year dental student at the University of Michigan.

The B. Dos. Ellwoods, of Beverly road, spent Christmas day with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill D. Petrie, and their four children, of Pontiac.

Young Dramatists Honor Ex-advisers

About 80 members and former members of Proceum, a high school student drama group, gathered recently to honor Mr. and Mrs. Dean Coffin.

The Coffins had last year been advisers of the group, which they had been instrumental in forming three years ago, but this year had found it impossible to be its advisers.

Heading plans for the Sunday afternoon event and presenting the group's gift to the honor guests was Walt Herdich, president of the club. The gift was a stereo camera, case and viewfinder. Refreshments were in charge of Palmer Bollinger and Nancy Brown.

The club, which includes 100 members, is being sponsored this year by Mr. and Mrs. William Kessel and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kass.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
