

Red Velvet, Ermine Accent Southern Rites

With holly sprays and berries tucked in their white ermineuffs, attendants in red velvet gowns came down the aisle of the First Christian church in Union City, Tenn. They preceded Madeline Caldwell to the altar when she exchanged marriage vows with Peter Lowry Hershey.

Following the four o'clock ceremony, Dec. 29, the newlyweds and their parents received guests in the church parlors. Madeline chose a white length gown of off-white tulle. The portrait neckline was outlined with seed pearls and princess lines complemented the skirt. She had a finger ring veil and carried a white orchid.

Bridal attendants were Juliette Patrick of Montgomery, Ala.; maid, Claire Caldwell, matron, Marie Clear and JoAnn Ann McAlister, bridesmaids, and Judy Bennett, junior bridesmaid, all of Union City.

They were dressed identically with all attendants wearing red velvet hats except the maid who had white ermine, and all had identical nifts except the matron, who had red poinsettias.

David Hershey was his brother's best man. Ushers were Air Force Lieutenants Kenneth Housat of Philadelphia, Penn., and Frank Thompson of Birmingham, Ala. Junior groomsmen was Barry Vaden.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilkinson wore an ice blue tulle cocktail dress embellished with bugle beads.

The new Mrs. Hershey donned a pink blue wool ensemble with a large white beaver hat and the orchid.

They will make their home at 2302 South Monticello, Lo-Big Springs, Texas, near Webb Air Force Base where Peter is stationed.
