DIBBY SMITH MI 42723

Sylvia Chalk is home for a few days from her duties and lessons at the Bellevue Medical Center. Sylvia, who is a student at Skidmore college, arrived last Sunday to be with her family, the Harold J. Chalks of Big Beaver road. The young lady had a choice to make, for it was either Christmas or New Year's that she could be with her family—this year she chose New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Dillon of Bitternut Hill drive, for they have been visiting them over Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. John Pullar came out from Detroit Christmas Eve; that was they could be on hand for the fun of Christmas morning.

Christmas day was a busy one for the Marc E. Hagemans of Bitternut Hill drive, for they packed their youngsters in the car bright and early that morning and drove to Flint. The morning was spent with the Hageman family and the afternoon with Mrs. Hageman's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eversong entertained at an open house during the holidays at their home on Charing Cross road. The William R. Bueckle will welcome in the New Year with a dinner party at their home on Squirrel road. Their guests will be the William R. Franks, John C. Wright, Philip D. Frenches, the James M. Smiths and Mrs. Ethel Beebe of Birmingham.

Wednesday, Dec. 22, the music department of Troy High school presented a Christmas concert. Ruth Bradford, instructor of voice and Don Sawyer, band instructor, and the pupils entertained the guests with a special program of Christmas music.

'Birminghamites' Gifts at Institute

Among recent acquisitions in the display currently shown at the Detroit Art Institute this week are a collection of beads, tiny boxes and other small decorative objects, porcelain and bakelite, given by Mr. and Mrs. Marc Eversong of Birmingham, and an enameled panel given by the James O. Keenes of Birmingham. The panel was made by a 17th century Georgian fan for her mother to present to the Eastern Orthodox church on Good Friday to cover the ceremonial floor of Christ.

MRS. HERMAN E. ERKE

California Honeymoon Follows Tuesday Rites

At an eleven o'clock wedding, Tuesday, in Our Lady of Good Counsel church, Detroit, Edythe Marguerite Donnelly became the bride of Herman Ernest Erke of Birmingham. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Michael Donnelly. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Fred H. Erke of Rich Hill, Mo., and the late Mr. Erke.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Leo F. Gabel of Detroit, wore an ice blue satin gown with a matching sash and lace veil, a matching eider jacket with a high neckline and fitted sleeves and the full skirt swept into a cathedral train. A tiny lace cap held an ice blue finger-tip veil and her bouquet was of sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

MARY Catherine Manning, the bride's cousin, was her only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of holiday red crystalline and a matching hat. Her flowers were white roses framed in holly leaves. Patrick N. Nolan was best man and Gilbert, including Arthur L. and William J. Donnelly, brothers of the bride and John S. Black.

FOR HER niece's wedding, Mrs. Gabel wore a gold brocade dress with a matching hat and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Erke wore a light brown crepe dress with dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

A breakfast and reception were given at Botford Inn, Farmington, West Virginia university, where she was affiliated with Chi Omega. Her husband was an Ohio State University graduate and a member of Delta Sigma Pi. Thompson is an employee of the National Bank of Detroit and a member of the Junior Board of Commerce of Delta Delta. His hobbies are golfing and fishing. They have one son, James Bradley.

Walnut Lake

ELIZABETH BUNNELL MA 6-5444

Walnut Lake Men's club is celebrating New Year's Eve with a party for members and their wives. Dancing will be the main attraction of the evening, and a late supper will be served. The clubrooms will then be closed until Jan. 7, at which time the regular monthly meeting will be held.

Among the college set home for Christmas are Eudora Schultz from the University of Michigan, Bruce Wallace from Michigan Tech, Diane Major from Lake Erie college in Ohio, Louise Roberts from Western Reserve Union, Ronnie Nightingale from Michigan State, and Barbara Stradler from Wayne university.

On Thursday, Dec. 23, Rachel Rice had a Christmas party for a group of friends. Exchanging presents and playing records were Penny King, Pam Perkins, Barbara Shank, Gail Paige, Sharon Gibson, Judy Sundstrom and Rachel, whose parents are the Kyle Winemillers of Putnam drive.

A group of young people were entertained Monday at the home of Elaine Palmer at the home of her parents, the John Palmers on Middlefield road.

On the honor lists issued just before the holidays at Birmingham High school were Sally Hanson, Valerie Benway, Beverly Noh, Carol Neigh, Pat Nyberg, Mary Roberts and Martha Koskinen.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS Welcome to new neighbors the Walter Briedens, of East Dartmoor road, who moved here from Grosse Pointe Woods. Briedens is connected with the United States Eastern corporation. The Briedens have five grown children, including a son who has just returned from Korea. The whole family celebrated Christmas Eve in their parents' new home, bringing the five grandchildren along to enjoy the fun.

Welcome too to the Edward C. Liebrecht, formerly of Indianapolis, who moved into their new home here on West Dartmoor road just in time for the holidays. Liebrecht was transferred here by the Sturtevant company. They have three children, Nancy, who is
