office of the Automobile Club of Michigan. Scheduled for completion by July 1, the club will serve the 7,000 members residing in the Birmingham area.

Birmingham Community House newly appointed Bench Room director, James E. Haggart, will be introduced when an open house community youth center March 19.

W. S. Toothacker, known to his students in the Birmingham school system many years ago as "Mr. Chips," died Monday at his home in 84 Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. Toothacker, 81, was associated with the Birmingham district for 27 years. He retired eight years ago.

H. F. Lange, vice president and treasurer of Michigan Bell Telephone company, was named general chairman of the second annual subscription drive of Junior Achievement for southern Okla. county. He will head the committee which helps establish the young men and women in the school system as future business leaders.

Greyhound buslines have announced that with the opening of the Northland shipping center, March 22, special runs will be inaugurated to that point. There will, however, be no direct line from Birmingham.

W. S. TOOTHACKER, head coach at Birmingham high school for seven years, resigned from coaching and teaching to enter private business in mid-April.

Issue of March 25

A record 1954-55 budget of $2,394,320.51 was approved Monday night by the Birmingham board of education. The figure includes a salary increase for teachers.

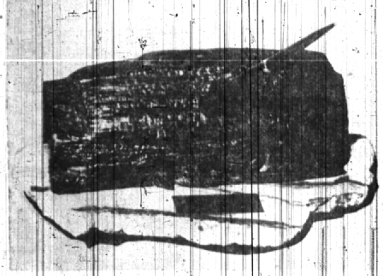

Combined assessed valuation of three area communities has jumped nearly 8 1/2 million during the past year. Complete totals on assessed valuations for Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Larchmont show an increase of this amount over the 1953 total of $56,362,465.

Sudden upswing in crime in Birmingham during the past year has been traced to greater incidents among juveniles, according to Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley. There were 163 youngsters involved with the police, compared to 95 last year. Widening and paving of W. Maple from Linden to Glenhurst may be included in this summer's paving contracts if Oakland county road commissioners can legally enter into a contract with the city on an anticipated revenue basis.

MARGARET Houcke-White, noted photographer for Life Magazine, was guest speaker at Friends of Baldwin Library on April 20.

A BIT OF HISTORY is incorporated into this pen which helped to make history in May when it was used by president Eisenhower to sign the St. Lawrence Seaway Bill. His request was that it be turned over to the Detroit Historical society for safekeeping.

A SIMPLE SWEARING-in ceremony and an audit of the books directed by E. H. Loch (left) Detroit postal inspector, officially dismissed former postmaster Bernard E. Fowler and placed Roland W. Reese (right), a popular civic leader, as acting director of Birmingham's postal operations. Reese's appointment as permanent postmaster is on its way to the U.S. Senate for confirmation.
