Three-Year-Olds Celebrate Birthdays in Cowboy Style

There was a house full of little Hopalong Cassidy in the James J. Kelly home Sunday, when Billy Kelly and Kenny Pallas celebrated their third birthdays together. The cowboy theme was maintained in the table decorations and each of the two boys had his own cake with marching horses on top.

All of the guests were reminded that Santa Claus time is coming as they left with a book and a Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer to hang on their Christmas trees.

Children attending the party were Teri Hensick, Jeff Moss, Bob Glifford, Bruce Brandert, Sharvo Brewer, Sue Anne Capinola, Daryl Pallas and Billy's assisting two sisters and brother, Cathleen, Gay Marie and Michael Kelly.

There's a newcomer in the Edwin Schreck home on Reedmore. Little Frederick William was born Nov. 17 joining two older brothers, Edward Michael 5, and Daniel Myers, 2.

And Mr. and Mrs. William A. Compton of Lochebie have announced the arrival of a daughter, Anne Christine, born Nov. 12. The Comptons also have a son, Fred Arthur, age two.
