N. A. Rowes Entertain Two Guests from 'Down Under'

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Rowe, of Timber Lake road, entertained guests from New York City and Sydney, Australia at cocktails at their home and dinner at Fox and Hounds Saturday evening, Dec. 4. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Aranyo, of New York City, M. O. Hughes and G. C. deGrenlaw, from Sydney, Australia. Aranyo also spends much time in Brazil. When Hughes and deGrenlaw return to their homes in Sydney, they will have been around the world. Both gentlemen go to New York City and Washington, D.C., as their next stops and deGrenlaw embarks for Sydney to be with his family for Christmas. Hughes will spend Christmas in London, England with his parents where Mrs. Hughes has been visiting since September. An interesting note on the weather is that Sydney is just leaving into its summer season and the temperature was 90 degrees when Hughes and deGrenlaw left their homes.

Mrs. George Fox, of Birmingham, and Mrs. George W. Bird, of Goffville, drove co-hostesses at a surprise luncheon in honor of Mrs. William Newton, of Birmingham, Mrs. Bird's home Friday, Nov. 27. Mrs. Newton will be leaving January 1, with Mr. Newton, for Denver, Colo., where they will make their home. Newton, who is with General Motors has been transferred to Denver. Guests at the luncheon, besides the honoree, Mrs. Newton, were Mrs. Cecil Charlton, Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mrs. William Ewald, Mrs. Ferd M. Brooch, Mrs. Fred Finch, Mrs. William Grogan, Mrs. George Shepherd, Mrs. Edwin H. Neff and Mrs. Wilson Mitchell.

Following luncheon an afternoon of bridge was enjoyed. A lovely gift was also presented to Mrs. Newton.

DECEMBER MOON

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Begle, of East Miller Way, were dinner hosts to eight couples for a most unusual and interesting "December Moon" party Saturday evening, Dec. 4.

Guests attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Matt Comb, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Linder, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, all of Birmingham. Dr. and Mrs. James Frey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Al Black, of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. John Begle of Southfield.

Plans for this party were begun well in advance when each guest received a typed invitation to which he must reply. If he accepted he was sent further typed instructions which he must follow. Plans must not be revealed to any other guest before the evening of the party.

Instructions sent part of the guests to each of three homes for cocktails at 6 o'clock. The three homes entertaining at this time were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Begle, the dinner hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe. While at these homes "December Moon" called to instruct the couples to progress and merge into two cocktail parties at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Comb and Mr. and Mrs. Linder.

The call from "December Moon" was then received at these homes instructing all guests to meet for buffet dinner at 9 o'clock at the Begle home. Every destination was a surprise and was not previously revealed to any but the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Mayer, Lane Lake road, were guest of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Christian, of Waddington road, at the President's Ball at the Detroit Golf club in Palmer Woods, Saturday evening, Dec. 4. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Morse, of Lone-Pine road; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pevers of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gerlison,

Gilbert Lake road, recently spent a few days in Chicago at guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Gerlison. While there they also visited friends in Western Springs, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Welsh, of Timber Lake road, had as their guests the past week Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ameling of Grand Rapids.

Five guests helped Wayne Wright celebrate his 17th birthday recently. Dinner guests were Wayne's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kline, of Saginaw, and Lonnie Hauck, Joan Logan and Don Michael of Royal Oak. Wayne's parents are Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Wright of Pon Valley. Wright's other children are Billy, 12 and Jean Ann, 10.

Wayne and the three other young people attended the hockey game in Detroit after the birthday dinner.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Flaherty returned Wednesday, Dec. 1 from Newcastle, Pa., where they visited Flaherty's mother, Mrs. Patrick J. Flaherty.

The Flahertys stopped at Newcastle on their return from New York City where they visited their daughters. On Sunday evening, Nov. 28, Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty, with their daughter Pat and Cathy, attended the Ed Sullivan TV show which they enjoyed very much.

Fat, who attends Manhattanville college in Purchase, N. Y., will arrive home for the holidays Dec. 17, and Cathy, who attends Marymount school in Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, will arrive on December 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Hollenbeck entertained three couples for cocktails and dinner at their home on Snowshoe circle on Sunday evening, Dec. 3. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Katke, of Bloomfield Village, Mr. and Mrs. James Knowles and Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Sandberg of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. James Proctor, with sons Jimmy and Bill, of Washington, D. C. recently visited Birmingham. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Humphrey of North Miller Way. Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey entertained other members of Mrs. Humphrey's family in honor of the Proctors. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McLay, a sister, of Huntington Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schovan, a brother, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Breiben have as their guest through the holiday season Mrs. Brien's mother, Mrs. Oliver Brenwall of Phelps, Wis.

NEW ARRIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Edwards, Johanna Holt, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are announcing the birth of a son, William Jeffrey, born Friday, Dec. 3, weighing seven pounds, 12 ounces and 10 1/2 inches.

The very proud maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Strouse of Snowshoe circle. Mrs. Strouse left by plane Monday to be with her daughter, Mrs. Edwards, for about one week.

The C. H. Gerlisons were guests the past weekend of Mrs. Gerlison's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Bay City. The Johnsons entertained their guests at a smorgasbord put on by the Messiah Lutheran church in the Consistory Cathedral in Bay City.

SURPRISE DINNER

Michi and Andy Gallaudet recently were hostesses at a surprise dinner party at their home on Shadow lane. The girls planned and prepared the dinner for eight guests.

Honor guests were their parents Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gallaudet, on their 24th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weel-er of Franklin, on their 15th wedding anniversary and Edson Gallaudet on his 18th birthday. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. William L. Richards, of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton O'Connor, of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cummins, Jr., Robert C. Island, Jr., Thompson Kearns, and David Gilchrist, all of Birmingham, and younger brother Tommy Gallaudet.
