Do-It-Yourself Bird House Contest Sponsored by Club

Following the suggestion submitted by Mrs. Ralph Darling, president, members of the Wing Lake Shores Farm and Garden Club are sponsoring a do-it-yourself birdhouse contest for boys between the ages of 8-14 who live in Wing Lake Shores or Wing Lake Farms. The birdhouses will be put in the Wing Lake Shores or beach areas according to the...

The contest opens Jan. 1 and closes May 1 at which time professional judges from a Detroit newspaper will be on hand to judge the entries. First prize will be three dollars; second prize, one dollar and third prize, a dollar. Winners will be announced in The Birmingham Eccentric.

WALTER TIEDE HOME Walter Tiede, West Maple road, home from the hospital. He suffered a seriously injured elbow in the family's recent accident in which his wife, Virginia, was killed.

Dickie, who suffered bruised and shock, has been cared for in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fleming West Surrey, but is now at home with his father.

Toni Tiede, most seriously injured, is reported making good progress at Pontiac General hospital. Because of her wild interest and participation in many committees and groups, Mrs. Tiede was known to many people. Her many friends and neighbors gathered at her home to believe her place in the community will be difficult to fill.

Wing Lake school children will give their Christmas program Wednesday afternoon Dec. 15, at 2 o'clock in the all-purpose room of the school. Preceding the program, a meeting of the Parent Teachers Organization will take place at 1:30 p.m.

TINY TOT SWIMMING The YMCA, in Pontiac, announces that another tiny tot swimming class will begin in January. Classes will be limited to 10 or 12 children and will be held from 4 to 4:45 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday. Parents who are interested will please call the YMCA. There are only a few openings left for the January session.

HOUSEGUESTS Dr. and Mrs. Earl Weston of Wing Lake road entertained Mrs. Weston's sister and brother-in-law, Mrs. Lester W. Blantz, and their children, Lee, Blantz and Zoe Lynn, of Chicago, Ill., Nov. 29-30.

they had to come home to "rest". Dakota Circle welcomed a new family to its neighborhood on Nov. 12. The Robert Fogarty's and their four-and-a-half-year-old son Rudy and one-year-old June Anne Fogarty are with the Ford division in Livonia in product planning. They are both graduates of Purdue university. She is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority. Relatives and life-long friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carroll and daughters, Micky and Marilyn live in Chicago. Hence their recent week's visit there was truly "old home week". They made their headquarters with Ed's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waterhall of Morton Grove. Their schedule of dinner dates and friendly visits was so full they had to come home to "rest".

The Allen Gredelmanns of Cherokee Road hosted a buffet dinner party of 120 members of the Country Club of Central North-west Presbyterian church, Detroit, Saturday evening. Their basement recreation room was decorated in Christmas colors and many five large tables bore Christmas table cloths.

The evening's program consisted of Christmas grab-bags, movies and the traditional Christmas story read by a Wayne university student.

The annual Christmas Concert by the Bloomfield Hills high school choir under the direction of C. A. Luchman will be at the Cranbrook gym, One Pine and Orchard Ridge road, Dec. 10 at 8:30 p.m.
