

"OLD AND NEW" Americans will mingle when the annual Folk Ball of the International Institute of Metropolitan Detroit is held Feb. 20 in the Crystal ballroom of the Masonic Temple. Localities working on the plans are Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Wilson, general chairman; Mr. and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Taylor and Mrs. Richard Strickland. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Strickland (left to right), are shown discussing final plans for the folk affair. (Eccentric Staff Photo)

Fine Music
and how to reproduce it in your home

In order to listen to the life-like music of High Fidelity, the tools which enable this accomplishment are all important... record player, changer, tuner, amplifier and speaker. In making your selection you should take into account the space you have available, the number of music sources you wish to employ, and the amount of money you care to spend. A vast, new world of listening pleasure awaits you.
