

Franklin PTA Plans Feb. 26 Dance Party

By ANGELA DADSON
Staff Correspondent
MA. 6-2441

FRANKLIN—Tickets for the Franklin PTA-sponsored square and round dance, scheduled for 8:30 p.m. on Friday Feb. 26, are going fast, according to Mrs. Gilbert Broders, chairman of ticket sales.

Those wanting to get in on this affair should make reservations with Mrs. Broders by calling on the Mayfair exchange. Dick Lewis is in charge of the music, will also call the square dances. Mrs. C. Hampson is in charge of decorations, Wendell Smith is arranging for refreshments, and Mrs. John Hill and Mrs. Jack LeVan are responsible for posters announcing the affair which is to be held at the community hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Roselle, Colony Hill road, have invited a group of friends from Royal Oak and Franklin to join them in cocktails preceding the dance.

Also entertaining at cocktails prior to the affair, at their home on Charles lane, will be the Kenneth Wagons. Their guests will come from Detroit and Franklin.

The Jack Wrefords, of Crestwood drive, have invited three couples from Detroit to be their guests at cocktails, the dance and for late supper after the event.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill will be hosts at their Romey road home after the dance, having a late supper party for twelve guests, all from Franklin.

Another group of Franklinites will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harden DeView for late supper at their German Mill road home.

Mrs. Charles Stout was hostess at luncheon at Kingsley Inn last Thursday to "howling" team-mates Mrs. Emil Pesar, Mrs. Kenneth Nichols and Mrs. Claude Cook. Bowling team-mates of Mrs. Nicholas Roselle, Mrs. Ralph Charbeneau, Mrs. John Gray and Mrs. Jack Roberts, were her guests at luncheon at Kingsley, prior to bowling last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Anthony Foley was hostess at luncheon yesterday at her home on Vernon drive. Her guests were Mesdames James McGuire, Ray Fracassi and Steve Kowalski.

The Foley and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Viviano, friends from Detroit, will leave on Feb. 28 for a month's tour of the Caribbean area. Their itinerary includes Haiti, Jamaica, the Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico and other points of note.

Dennis Foley, who will be eleven on March 3, will celebrate the event on Feb. 24 being young host to several friends at the Foley residence.

Mrs. Willy Wagner has returned to her home on German Mill road after a week in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ensign are visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Ensign, for a month's holiday before leaving on a two-year hitch at Anchorage, Alaska, Jim is a jet pilot.

The Franklin Community association has arranged for square dance to be held at the community hall on Friday, March 5 for the area's young folks from the fifth grade up. There will be no charge for the affair, which is slated to begin at 7:30 p.m. Dick Lewis will serve as caller.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baxley and children, who have moved from Detroit into their new place on Watley drive. The children are Bob, Mark, 10, Catherine, 9, and Ann, just 3 years old. Baxley is with the Detroit Diesel division of General Motors.

Gamma Phi Beta Alum. Elects; Plans July Meet

Speaking on "Beauty and Cosmetics," Alice Cameron was the guest of the Birmingham chapter of Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae on Feb. 11. The affair was held in the home of Mrs. John L. Sheppard on Warwick road.

The meeting was highlighted by election of Mrs. Frederick Gould, president for the coming year; Mrs. Robert Kilpatrick, vice president; Mrs. R. E. Eamari, secretary; Mrs. Robert Leary, treasurer; Mrs. A. E. Genung, Panhellenic representative and Mrs. Norris Host, publicity.

Plans for the International convention at Mackinac Island next July were discussed by the group.
