

Chantilly Lace Worn For Saturday Nuptials

A waltz length gown of nylon net and chantilly lace was worn by Mary Ann Mack for her marriage to Frank Manfred Fry. She chose a skull cap of nylon net and carried a white satin prayer book adorned with orchids and stephanotis.

Given in marriage by her father, the nuptial rites were read at 10 a.m., Feb. 13, in the Cathedral of the Holy Name in Chicago. The Rev. John Hern officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Maude Facker Mack of Frank street and Thomas H. Mack of Southfield Township. Frank's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Manfred William Fry of Chicago.

HER only attendant was Mrs. Donald Davies of Ann Arbor who was gowned in Dresden blue net with a matching headress. She carried a crescent of white carnations.

James Mitchell of Chicago was best man. Seating the guests was Joseph Mack of Detroit, brother of the bride, and Frank Clegg of Chicago.

Mrs. Mack chose a mauve lace ensemble and matching hat for her daughter's wedding. She had an orchid corsage. Camellias were pinned to Mrs. Fry's coronation blue dress with which she wore a dusty pink hat.

THE wedding breakfast was held at the Drake hotel in Chicago. The bridegroom's parents entertained at an evening openhouse. Honeymooning in Northern Wisconsin, the bride donned a grey-suit trimmed in red and white, a white hat and navy accessories for traveling. After March 15 the newlyweds will make their home at 8843 Dante, Chicago.

Traveling to Chicago for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Royce of Quenton road, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flynn of St. Catherine, Ont., and Mrs. Thomas H. Mack of Southfield Township.

Have You Met . . . Mr. and Mrs. F. C. MacFarlane, 6145 Worrington road, who moved from Huntington Woods. MacFarlane is self employed as a steamship agency. As hobbies, Mrs. MacFarlane and her husband hunt and fish from their lodge on Glen Lake, west of Traverse City.

AFTER ONE BRIEF GLANCE at maps and folders, the ladies' interest transfers quickly to a more important matter for their Caribbean cruise—clothes. Mrs. Anthony F. Foley of Vernon drive, Southfield township, shows the latest addition to her travel wardrobe to Mrs. Peter Viviano of Detroit. Their husbands, Viviano and Foley, are engrossed in travel folders and maps of the Caribbean area. The two couples will leave Feb. 28 for their month's cruise to Haiti, Jamaica, the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico.

SAE Makes Franklin Man Council Member

By ANGELA DADSON Staff Correspondent MA. 6-2441

FRANKLIN—F. Glen Shoemaker, chief engineer of General Motors' Detroit Diesel engine division plant at Wayne, has been made one of the council of the Society of Automotive Engineers for 1954-1955.

Joining General Motors in 1928, Shoemaker has been active in the corporation's diesel engine program from its inception. Also on the council, completing the 1953-1954 term, is Charles A. Chayne, vice president and chief engineer of General Motors, whose residence is to the north of Franklin, on Franklin road.

The PTA dance at Community Hall tomorrow night is an assured success, according to Mrs. Gilbert Broderick, in charge of ticket sales. No tickets will be sold at the door. Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Conrad will be hosts to eight guests, at dinner preceding the dance, at their place on scenic drive.

The Wendell Smiths also will be dinner hosts at their home on Carol road. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hampson, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Hard, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Le Van, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ricker and the E. K. Sampsons.

Mrs. Dwight Ensign and Mrs. Forrest Starret, leaders of sixth grade Girl Scout troop 359, and a committee of Scout mothers headed by Mrs. Leonard Lawton have planned a benefit car party to be held in the social room of the Franklin Community church starting at 1:30 p.m. next Monday.

March 1. Proceeds will go into a fund to assist the scouts with their individual expenses when they take their proposed weekend trip to Chicago in May. Mrs. Win Hinman

PEOPLE'S COLUMN Film Star Sends Personal Thanks To Kenny Group

To the Editors:

We of the Sister Kenny Anniversary club, are proud to have received a personal letter from Rosalind Russell, star of "Sister Kenny", the film we sponsored in Birmingham Tuesday evening.

It is gratifying to us to have this busy stage and screen star take time to send us her personal message. Her letter reads:

"May I send this message to you, the members of your committee and all those who are affiliating themselves with the work of Sister Kenny."

"It was my great privilege to know Sister Kenny for over 10 years and to have been selected by her to do the film. It was, and always will be, the personal highlight of my career."

IN MY opinion, there is no greater and more satisfying work than that which offers care to the crippled child. Sister Kenny felt this so deeply that she devoted her life to these unfortunate children. I know you feel it too, Mrs. Lewis, as do all those associated with you.

"On behalf of the Sister Kenny

Foundation, please offer my deep gratitude and warmest wishes to those who have so graciously given their theater for this occasion and to those in the audience whose real purpose in attending I am sure, is to be of help."

I would like to add my personal thanks to Miss Russell's, to all who have helped us put this project across.

MRS. C. B. LEWIS, President Sister Kenny Anniversary club
