WEST BEVERLY—A royal welcome is currently being accorded two newcomers to this area. The new little resident in Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Noonan's Mayfair lane home, is Timothy Arthur Noonan, born Feb. 5 in Detroit.

Another newcomer, Kevin Padric Kavanagh, was christened at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church, on Feb. 14, by the Rev. Robert Wilken, from Dun Scotus. Born Jan. 27, Kevin is the son of the Thomas G. Kavanaghs, of Faircrest drive. A buffet supper was served to 12 guests in the Kavanagh home after the christening.

Plans are shaping up rapidly for the March 17 Beverly Hills association luncheon and fashion show at Birmingham Country club. Included in the show will be furs from Dittreich's in Detroit, and fashions from the Bloomfield Fashion shop.

Tickets for West Beverly women and their friends may be obtained from block hostesses. Tables for groups of from four to 20 may be reserved if hostesses are notified well in advance. Members of the association's social committee met yesterday in the Birwood road home of Mrs. W. T. Read, to discuss arrangements for the luncheon and to lend a helping hand to the affair's decorating committee.

Boy Scouts of troop B-7 had their father-son banquet Feb. 8 at Embury Methodist church. Boys from this area who attended with their fathers, were Jeff Adams, Curtis Ashcraft, Doug Wilkins and Ken and Jack Mitchell. Eric Jacobson is scout master of the troop, which is sponsored by Pierce school.

On Feb. 10, 14 members of Girl Scout troop 307 met for a Valentine party at the home of Mrs. Herbert Green, on Devonshire road. After supper, movies were shown by Carol Torrey, assistant to Mrs. Donald Dittreich, the troop leader.

Considerable talent for self-expression was demonstrated at the Riverside dance club's recent "crazy hat" dance. Some particularly memorable "creations" were worn by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest George, Mrs. Joseph Campbell, Dick Latch and Mrs. William Gilmore. Mrs. George, in a blue lace dress, with a lighted lamp shade on her head, was a facsimile of a Dresden china lamp. George had a tiny electric train running, full board ahead, around his mortarboard-like cap. Hatch wore a large, inflated plastic horse attached to a skull cap, and Mrs. Gilmore was resplendent in a bird cage hat, complete with bird.

Members of the Beverly Hills book group, AAUW, meeting last Monday at the Auburn drive home of Mrs. G. A. Brundrett, heard a review of H. A. Cronin's "Beyond This Place," by Mrs. Alan Brundage.

Back from a three-week vacation in St. Petersburg Beach, Fla., are Mr. and Mrs. James H. Forbes, of Buckingham road. Eighth graders at Barnum school staged a square dance in the school gym last Friday night. Attending from this area were Sharon Walters, Janet Carpenter, Linda Chapman, Bob Wood, Emily Tucker, Karen Keene and Calla Reasener.

Among the young people who attended the Valentine dance at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church on Feb. 12, were Susan LaRose, Mickey Semposki, Tom White, and Joan and Connie Soma, Chairmen of the dance, held in the church social hall, was Mrs. C. J. Soma, of Kirkshire road.

Mrs. John Bekolay entertained 42 Community House Roll Call workers at a morning meeting in her Evergreen road home on Feb. 15. Mrs. Bekolay and Mrs. Donald Dittreich, of Chelsea road, are co-captains for West Beverly, which is the largest section to be covered in this year's drive. Canvassing will be done before Mar. 1.

Book Carts Donated to Barnum

Three steel carts, each complete with a set of the World Book encyclopedia and an unabridged Webster's dictionary, are the latest additions to Barnum junior high school's equipment.

Donated to the school by Barnum PTA, the carts will circulate around the classrooms as needed. Other books are also added to the school library each year by the PTA.

Funds for these and other school-needs projects are provided at the fall meeting every year. Parents are asked for a donation at the beginning of the fall term, with a small percentage being used for running expenses, and the remainder put into the fund.

A new public address system for the gymnasium was given to the school by the PTA last year, which is being used for school assemblies, meetings, square dances and other activities.
