

Build it YOURSELF with DAMO

DAMO wrought iron hairpin legs

Self-help toys will be turned in when the Alpha Chi Omega's Southern Oakland county chapter meets Feb. 9 at the home of Mrs. William Denman, 1870 Redding road.

The toys are made by chapter members and are presented once a year for child victims of cerebral palsy.

Speaker at the 8 p.m. meeting will be Mrs. Gerald Kirby of the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children. She will speak of the work done among these youngsters in an effort to help them successfully prepare themselves to meet adult life.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Austin Browne, Mrs. Marian Ojala, Mrs. Priscilla Anderson and Mrs. John Cross.

Best Seller Reviewed For Ruth Shain Class

A review of the Theodore White best seller, "Fire in the Ashes" will be presented by Mrs. William Jackson at the meeting of the Ruth Shain International Relations class at the Community House Tuesday morning.

In speaking of the program, Mrs. Shain said the book was an excellent work of tying together the many threads of the related forces of treaties, trades and other facets of international affairs today.

Study Membership

Membership in the South Oakland county planning council will be studied by Lathrup Village councilmen before they vote to join the group. The council received a letter Monday night from James H. Hickory inviting participation of Lathrup in the organization.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Christopher Morgan of Racine, Wisconsin, formerly of Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan Lancy of Seattle, Wash.

Sorority sister of the bride, Greta Giles of Detroit, was honor attendant in an Irish blue silk taffeta ballerina length dress. She carried pale pink camellias with a shimmer length veil of brilliant illusion. White camellias arranged with shattered hyacinths and variegated ivy comprised her bouquet.

Vows were exchanged at 3 p.m., January 30, at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Ann Arbor. The Rev. Wilbur R. Schuetz officiated.

MRS. MORGAN wore a soft blue wool cocktail suit and a corsage of pale pink camellias and hyacinths with variegated ivy. The bridegroom's mother chose a navy blue dress with matching bolero and a corsage of garnet roses.

A reception, following the wedding, was held in the Pi Beta Phi sorority house in Ann Arbor. A honeymoon was not planned as they are continuing their senior year at the University of Michigan, where Pat is a ceramics major at the School of Arts. Her husband will work on his Masters degree and they will live in Ann Arbor.

Appoint City Vet

Dr. James McEvoy, Oak Park veterinarian, was appointed city veterinarian by Lathrup Village city councilmen Monday night. Dr. McEvoy will act under terms of the dog ordinance.

Mrs. William B. Lancy, Jr.

U of M Students Wed In Episcopal Ceremony

White silk shantung cathedral length gown, with contoured long sleeve bodice, featuring a boueaus neckline outlined in Irish lace was worn by Patricia Morgan for her marriage to William Bryan Lancy, Jr. The headpiece was made of identical material with applied leaf design outlined in set pearls, with a shimmer length veil of brilliant illusion. White camellias arranged with shattered hyacinths and variegated ivy comprised her bouquet.

Vows were exchanged at 3 p.m., January 30, at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Ann Arbor. The Rev. Wilbur R. Schuetz officiated.
