Brookside Drive

This recently built rambling ranch home is a perfect residence for two or three. One of its unique features is a large paneled activities room with fireplace—fine for T.V. and entertaining. A sound-proof ceiling in this room soothes the nerves. Details are:

- Three picture windows.
- Fiberglass and aluminum insulation.
- Complete storm windows.
- Large screened porch 10 x 12.
- Outdoor patio and grill.
- First floor laundry room.
- 2 full baths. 2 bedrooms.
- Disposal. Dishwasher. Attic fan.

Discriminating buyers will appreciate the fine qualities of this home as well as its quiet, peaceful setting on a rolling knoll. Lots of breathing space on the 180 x 370-foot site. Taxes are really low, only $164.23.

A NEAR-BATTLE RESULTED last week in The Eccentric offices when advertising and editorial workers each contended that Sam, the pictured German shepherd, was reading his or her news or his or her advertisements. Others thought she might be looking for the want ad pages and the lost and found column. It will, however, never be known just what her gaze was fixed upon when she was photographed in The Eccentric office while waiting for her master, Thomas Shearer, 339 Henrietta, to finish his ad layout. Sam is a "she" with a full title of Sally of Kimmelfane. (Eccentric Staff Photo)

Community House Lists Duplicate Classes Due To Heavy Enrollments

Mrs. E. E. Schaffer, educational director for the Birmingham Community House this week announced the formation of four new classes to accommodate the surplus enrollment of a like number of popular courses.

Additional classes will be held for bridge, each Monday from 8-10 p.m.; Sculpturing, Tuesdays from 9 a.m. to noon; silver work, Fridays from 1-4 p.m. and drawing, Mondays from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. The latter class will be in charge of Joseph Burgess.

Several vacancies still exist in other classes, Mrs. Schaffer said, advising early enrollment so the winter program may get underway the week of Jan. 18.

★ Smile A Minute . . .
"Johnny, I am rather shocked. I have had a note from your schoolmaster in which he tells me that you are last in a class of thirty boys. What have you to say about that?"
"Well, dad, I'm sorry, but it might have been worse."
"How could it have been worse?"
"It might have been a larger class."
