

Twelve Seniors Complete Exams

Twelve seniors from Birmingham high school took college board examinations Saturday, Jan. 9. These examinations are the entrance requirement of most Eastern colleges and other colleges of high rating.

The students are Dave Andreus, Bob Smith, Don Dorrough, Russ Hibbard, Linda Hunt, John Howard, Barbara Atkins, Pat Jackson, Ann McDonald, Bill Hohmeyer, Virginia Baker and Fred Hicks. The examinations are given in March, January and December.

Applications for the March examinations can now be obtained from Kenneth Parker, senior counselor, and must reach their destination by February 20.

Austen's 'Pride' Opens Friday At Kingswood

"Pride and Prejudice," Jane Austen's classic English social satire, will be presented by the junior class at Kingswood School, Cranbrook, at 8:15 Friday and Saturday, Jan. 15 and 16.

Concerned with the pride of a "lower class" family as opposed to the prejudice of "society," the play tells of the social aspirations of a woman whose daughters love men "above their station."

Starring in the cast are Marcia McIntock, Jeanne Luce, Martha Bubs, and Gale Smith, all Birmingham; Patricia McKenna, Joan Lang and Marilyn Malone, Royal Oak; Kay Carso, Jean Moriarty, Detroit; Marianne Davidson, Lake Orion; and Leona Huberman, Rome, Italy.

Supporting male roles will be played by boys from the Cranbrook School dramatics group, including Richard Roberts and Robert Sprague, Detroit; Paul Sumner, Kalamazoo; Peter Cartwright, Ferndale; and Donald Hicks, Lorain, Ohio. Tickets for both productions may be obtained at the door. Seats are not reserved.

LISTENING INTENTLY IN A DOPE SESSION given by Coach Harry Keller, Baldwin gym instructor, are these fifth and sixth graders at Baldwin participating in a 10 week basketball program made available by the Birmingham Board of Education. Fifth and Sixth graders in Barnum, Pierce, Adams, Baldwin and shortly in Quorton will get special instructions in the fundamentals of basketball on Saturday mornings beginning at 9 a.m. Shown here getting tips from the coach are, from left to right, Phil Isbell, Doug Witters, Jay Madonna, Tod Butler, Keller and Bill Mosher.
