Mrs. Chamberlain, past president of the Detroit Federation of Women's clubs, life member of its board of directors and chairman of the Women's Town Hall series, has served under five Detroit mayors as a member of the House of Correction Committee.

She was appointed by former

A young musician who continued her education in war-ridden Austria despite bombs, unheated studios and a ban on her concerts for political reasons, pianist Schneidmann studied under such famous instructors as Rebay and Hans Weber and Claire Schewtzer, pupil of the great Leschetitzky.

Not yet a citizen, she feels her Americanization is progressing, because she has appeared on television and she cooks a steak dinner well, preferring it, she confesses, to her piano practice.

Reviews of Miss Schneidmann's concertizing in America and Europe have praised her remarkable technique and her sensitive and clear interpretations. Following her debut with the Chicago Civic Symphony orchestra, critic Felix Borowski declared her musicianship "a success, for she made manifest a felicitous tone, well developed execution and well turned phrase."

FINALLY at the close of World War II she realized her ambition of visiting the United States, Okla., who had been her students in Vienna at the American GI department of the Staatsakademie fur Musik where she was professor of
