Heads Terra Cotta Sculptor's Group

At the annual meeting of the Terra Cotta Sculptors on Jan. 8, Mrs. John S. Wittingham was chosen president for the coming year.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Thelma Claiborne, vice president; Mrs. Roger D. Marshall, secretary; Mrs. James Murphy, corresponding secretary and Miss Mary Elizabeth Ward, treasurer.

The work session on business meeting lesson in sculptural sketching by Miss S. S. Kline, in whose studio the meeting was held.

A luncheon and business meeting completed the activities of the day.

The newly elected treasurer will be hostess at the next meeting, Feb. 12, at her home in Franklin.

January Meets Are Scheduled By Woman's Club

The various departments of the Birmingham Woman's club has scheduled meetings, the first slated for Jan. 14, by the Modern Living group. This meeting will be at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Clark, 2007 First.

A leather-working demonstration will be presented by a representative of the Dearborn Leather company. Hostesses will be Mrs. Donald E. Clark, Mrs. Bennett Root and Mrs. Paul G. Grant.

Three other departments have scheduled meetings for Jan. 19. The Fine Arts department is meeting for luncheon at the home of Mrs. William S. Anderson, 18360 Devonshire.

CHAIRMAN of the day, Mrs. Emerson Brown, said Mrs. Forbes Hascall will present a book review on "The Broadway Way" by Sumi Seo Mishima. The 51-year-old author, educated in the United States, feels that the war in Japan was her deliverance. She is working toward better understanding between the United States and Japan. Mrs. Charles J. Shain, 814 Pierce, will be hostess at the luncheon meeting of the American Home department. Mrs. E. G. Garrison is scheduled to speak on "What We All Should Know about the United Nations". The Literature department is meeting with Mrs. William Dalze, 1877 Elgiron to hear a talk by Mrs. Clarence Vliet on atomic energy. The day's activities are in charge of Mrs. John R. Duffy, with Mrs. D. L. Tate, Mrs. J. R. Bell and Mrs. Katie Cook in charge of the luncheon.

Walnut Lk. Women Plan Public Party

WALNUT LAKE—A dessert card party, open to the public, has been planned for Wednesday, Jan. 27, at 12:30 at the West Bloomfield township hall. The executive board of the Walnut Lake Women's club is sponsoring the affair. Reservations may be made with any member of the board, among whom are Mrs. Martin Wade, Mrs. Frank Morton, Mrs. M. R. Sutton and Mrs. John A. Smith.

Lawrence Smith, a Birmingham landscape architect, was the speaker at the Jan. 5 meeting of the Walnut Lake Women's club. His talk was illustrated by colored slides showing views of homes before and after landscaping. A question period followed.

The executive board of Walnut Lake PTA met Jan. 5 at the home of the mother vice president, Mrs. O. S. Koskinen. A committee which has been investigating the traffic hazard in front of the school reported that conditions there have somewhat improved. Continued co-operation is asked of parents who come to pick up their children.

Board members present were Mrs. Robert Myers, Mrs. Ben Hampton, Mrs. Otis Fockler, Miss Marjorie Voley, Mrs. Harold Jones, Roland Walton, Keith Symon, J. B. Roberts and John Nahabedian.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pettiger of Eastman drive announce the birth of a son, Carl Jr., on Dec. 31, at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac. He is the 13th child of the couple. Three sisters, Pamela, Bethy and Susan.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Marx and their children, Caroline, 6, Margery, 3, and William, 18 months. The Marx family came from West Dearborn to their new home in North Hills last September. Mrs. Marx, a registered nurse, is from Kalamazoo, her husband from Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ollar, Judy and Jeff, are now living in Royal Oak. They had been staying on Middlebelt road since last fall.

Another who has left Walnut Lake is Mrs. H. Thomas, who has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Bunn, on Kenmore. Mrs. Thomas has taken an apartment in Detroit in order to be near her business, a dairy store which she owns.

Returning early last week from Anniston, Ala., were Mrs. Graham Overcard and daughters, Karen and Sandra. They had started from Walnut Lake Christmas morning for a visit with Mrs. Overcard's father, Alexander Sutherland.

The Granger home on Middlebelt road was a busy place last Saturday evening. Daughter Lynn was hostess at a skating party, while a few of David's classmates gathered for dancing. His guests were Lynn Roberts, Karen Smith, Susan Parkins, Gordon Jory and Lynn Clymer.

On Thursday evening Lynn Clymer was hostess of a group of young dance enthusiasts at his parents' home on South Clunbury.

Junior Big met with Ed Kirbert at the Sub. 2 clubhouse last Friday evening for movies and dancing. Mrs. Clifford Welker and Claire Hellenberg were chaperones. The next meeting will be tomorrow evening.

A fire at the Robert Hengen home on Middlebelt road on the morning of Jan. 5, brought out the Walnut Lake volunteer fire department and two trucks from Keego Harbor. The alarm was sounded first at Walnut Lake at 10 a.m. and the response of the local department was so efficient that the fire was under control when the Keego equipment arrived. The blaze was caused by a torch which Hengen was using in the garage.

Cub Scout den mothers met for dessert on Jan. 4. The theme of the month is "Cub Scout Activities Plans for January den meetings were discussed.
