

Neighborhood Meetings Held By Lathrup Scouts

A neighborhood association meeting, bringing together Lathrup Scout leaders and troop committee members was held in the Townsite Community church on Monday. Presiding was Mrs. Frank Fleischer, neighborhood chairman, assisted by Mrs. Webster Owen who led the group in singing the regional song of the Girl Scouts of the Great Lakes area.

Mrs. Thomas Gibbs, program chairman; Mrs. William Commons, day camp chairman and Mrs. Webster Owen, established camp chairman, gave their reports from the Southfield Council.

PLANS were discussed for a combined troop roller skating outing to be held in February. The group also considered an invitation to attend the meeting of the Lathrup Woman's club on Feb. 1 at which time Lucy Corbett of "Pot

The Girl Scouts also talked over plans to make place cards and programs for their dads, to be ready for the Father and Daughter banquet to be held at Townsite church. The Intermediate Scouts have scheduled their party for March 23 and the Brownies on March 30. Program chairmen are Mrs. Albert Cattell and Mrs. Edmond Vale, respectively.

THE HAROLD WEINGOLD HOME on Bird street was decorated in the Western theme Saturday, complete with miniature horse-drawn covered wagon and cowboy placecards. Occasion for the party was Alicia Dawn Weingold's fourth birthday. Ten-gallon hats, checkered shirts, chaps and vests were part of the garb worn by the small party-goers. FRANKLIN—The annual president's ball, given by the Franklin Community association this Saturday night at Bonnie Brook Golf club, will be preceded by numerous cocktail parties.

The Henry Buegels, Inxster, had invited guests from Franklin and the Meadow Lake area to join them before the ball. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Treadway will entertain eight friends at their home on Franklin court. The Don McElhons will have as their guests the Bill Albea and the Denny Conners. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wischman will be hosts to a group of friends before proceeding to the dinner-dance. Another group will congregate at the Win Hinman home on Wellington road. Mr. and Mrs. Murdock Morrison have invited six couples to their Wellington road home for cocktails; their guests will come from Detroit and Franklin.

The George Allmansbergers are having a neighborhood get-together preceding the ball. Joining them in cocktails, all from the Franklin Hills drive section, are the Richard Horstes, the Clinton Hostetlers, the Barney Ziessons, the Edwin Casenhizers, the Edmond Webbs, the Harold Compons, the William Kanns, the W. K. Griffins, the Paul Robertson and the Robert Boxley.

With them, too, will be Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Scott of Oak Park, who have purchased the Rosteler home and will move into the area sometime in March.

Off to ski at the Otsego Ski club this weekend are the Carson Binghams, Bingham road, their children David and Charles, and guests. They will stay at Hilton Valley resort and plan to attend the annual snow ball to be held there this Saturday.

Also at the Otsego Ski club this weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peslar and children Judy and Deane. They will be guests of Peslar's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnston of Grosse Pointe Woods.

The Franklin P.T.A. at its Jan. 11 business session, voted its approval of two dances to be given during the year as the association's fund-raising project. Mixed ballroom and square dancing is planned, with the first affair to be held at the community hall on Friday, Feb. 26.

The P.T.A. is also taking orders for Franklin school T-shirts, sweat shirts and cardigans. Phone Mrs. Jack Weford, on the Mayfair exchange.

January's children—Russell Rotzler celebrated his seventh birthday, along with the New Year, on Jan. 1. Steven Horn was four on Jan. 7. The McGuire twins, Ellen and Andrew, celebrated their seventh birthday on Jan. 8. Happy birthday to Cathy Carner and to Diane McDonald who will each become 10 years old on Jan. 29.

Family Goes to Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Walter High and daughter, Maureen, will leave in February for Indian Rocks Beach, Fla., where they will remain until June. Having sold their home at 622 Vinewood, they will return to Lake Arrowhead where they will build a new home and make their permanent residence.

News About GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP 363—BALDWIN
Girl Scout troop 363 of Baldwin school elected officers, recently naming Candy Mack as president, Diane Cox, treasurer, and Nonie White, secretary. Each girl made a get-well card for Mrs. White, mother of one of the girls who is ill.

The group also visited the Community House where the Needlework Guild was having a tea for Girl Scouts and Brownies. Cookies and punch were served and the work of the guild was planned. Working with the Guild, this year the Scouts and Brownies will make items to be given to the children at the Folio Foundation at the Sister Kenny home.

TROOP 368—ADAMS
Mrs. Myrtle T. Pratt, former nurse, visited the troop and gave the girls instructions in handiwork which helped them to fulfill their first Aid requirements for their Second Class badge. At the next meeting Mrs. C. R. Obermeyer will visit the troop and help the girls design some original ceramic pieces. The girls will make their own designs and at another meeting will work them out in clay—Mrs. Obermeyer will fire these pieces for them.

New officers recently elected by the troop are: Susan Hallas, president; Barbara Jankis, secretary; Judy Storey, treasurer; Donna Sue Andrus brought the nibbles for last week's meeting.

Annual Regional Meeting
Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Inc., invites all adult Scouts in the region to the annual meeting to be held Thursday, Jan. 28, at the Birmingham Community House, from 1:15 to 3:45 p.m. Tea will be served.

Sister Kenny Club To Sponsor Movie In Fund Campaign

Directors of the Sister Kenny Anniversary club of Birmingham, Mrs. C. E. Lewis, president, met Sunday afternoon at the Henrietta street home of Miss Frieda Calhoun, recording secretary, to formulate plans for a benefit showing in February of a feature film portraying the life of Sister Elizabeth Kenny, staying Rosalind Russell.

The purpose of the program is to raise funds for needed equipment at the Sister Kenny goli hospital at Farmington, where many residents of the Birmingham area have been treated. Dr. Ethel T. Calhoun of Birmingham is medical superintendent of the hospital.

GENERAL chairman of the benefit will be Mrs. Edwin Clarke, assisted by Mrs. Wilbur Johnston, chairman. Richard Cummings is in charge of technical arrangements. Mrs. Walter Wakeman, Jr., has been appointed poster chairman and Miss Calhoun, publicity.

Another meeting of the directors, augmented by the various committee chairmen and representatives of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation of Michigan will be held at Miss Calhoun's home next Sunday afternoon.

It is anticipated that two evening performances of the picture will be given on a date to be decided at this meeting.

All facilities and services for the event are to be donated and the entire proceeds of the entertainment will be allocated to the hospital equipment fund.
