WEST BEVERLY—A group of area men and women who have contributed much of their time and efforts this past year toward making Cub Scout Pack B-24 a going concern, can now look about with some degree of satisfaction, and consider the mission accomplished.

Mainstays in the pack's organization have been committee chairman, Leland Rosemont; treasurer, William Gilmore; Cub Master, Ed Strath; assistant Cub Master, D. H. Rhoton; membership chairman, Albert Kray and D. S. Clark; advancement chairman, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. LaFosse; program chairman, W. H. Bricker; Mark Cheever, E. G. VanWyck and G. A. Roehne; handicrafts chairman, Alex Jones and D. S. Clark; and publicity chairman, Mrs. D. S. Clark.

Back last week from a two-week stay in Florida are Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Scarth, of Sunnyslope drive. They visited her father, Col. A. J. Kuhlman (USA ret.) in St. Petersburg. Warned of the freakish weather, the Scarths came back by way of Alabama, to avoid mountain driving.

Guests in the Scarth home for two days last week, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Huffman, ex-Birminghamers now living at Three Rivers.

The ladies' luncheon and card party at the Birmingham country club last Thursday, lured many West Beverly women away from home fireside. Luncheon guest of Mrs. Neil Marshall at the club were Mrs. Thomas Dunn Mrs. W. A. Caltrider, Mrs. Henry Welch, Mrs. Chet Guilmet, Mrs. Maynard Beukema, Mrs. Elmer Neemeer and Mrs. Stewart Barton.

Janet Johnson's 11th birthday was the occasion for a dinner party at her home on Medford road last Saturday night. Janet's guests were Mrs. Jeannie Stettbacher, Ruth Kalmbach, Pam Jones, Lynn Vogel, Dianne DeRosier, Sharon Dittich, Marion Ginman, Melody Brown, Nancy Williams, Mary Ann Stone, Pat McFarland and Pat Schliisky.

The G. A. Racines of Warwick road flew in from Florida last week, where they had vacationed for three weeks at Pompano. After a cold first week down there, the weather smiled for a trip to the Keys, and made Michigan blizzards all the harder to face upon their return north.

On Jan. 11 Maynard Beukema invited five members of her bowling team to lunch in her Devonshire home, before their weekly bowling session. A business meeting for the entire West Beverly league, was held at Bloomfield lanes Monday afternoon.

"Correlation of Painting and Interior Decorating" was the topic of a talk given by Mrs. John L. Sheberd, of Warwick road, before members of the Beverly Hills book group, AAUW, on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Sheberd based her discussion on "The Story of Painting," by H. W. Janson, and her own experience as associate decorator with the Madeleine Tillotson studio. The group met in the Beaconsfield road home of Mrs. J. T. Dorough.

The John Madonna home on Bedford road, was the meeting place Saturday night for a group of 16 card-playing enthusiasts from Bedford, Medford and Hillcrest roads.

Committee members for the Beverly Hills association luncheon and fashion show were named at a meeting of the association's social committee Jan. 20. General chairman and co-chairman of the affair are Mrs. Henry Guenther and Mrs.

Have You Met . . .
 Mr. and Mrs. Darwin G. Kettering, who moved to 691 Oak street from East Lansing? He is an economic analyst for Ford Tractor division of Ford Motor company. Affiliated with Alpha Zeta and Phi Gamma Nu, Kettering received his master's degree from Michigan State college and his wife is a former school teacher.
